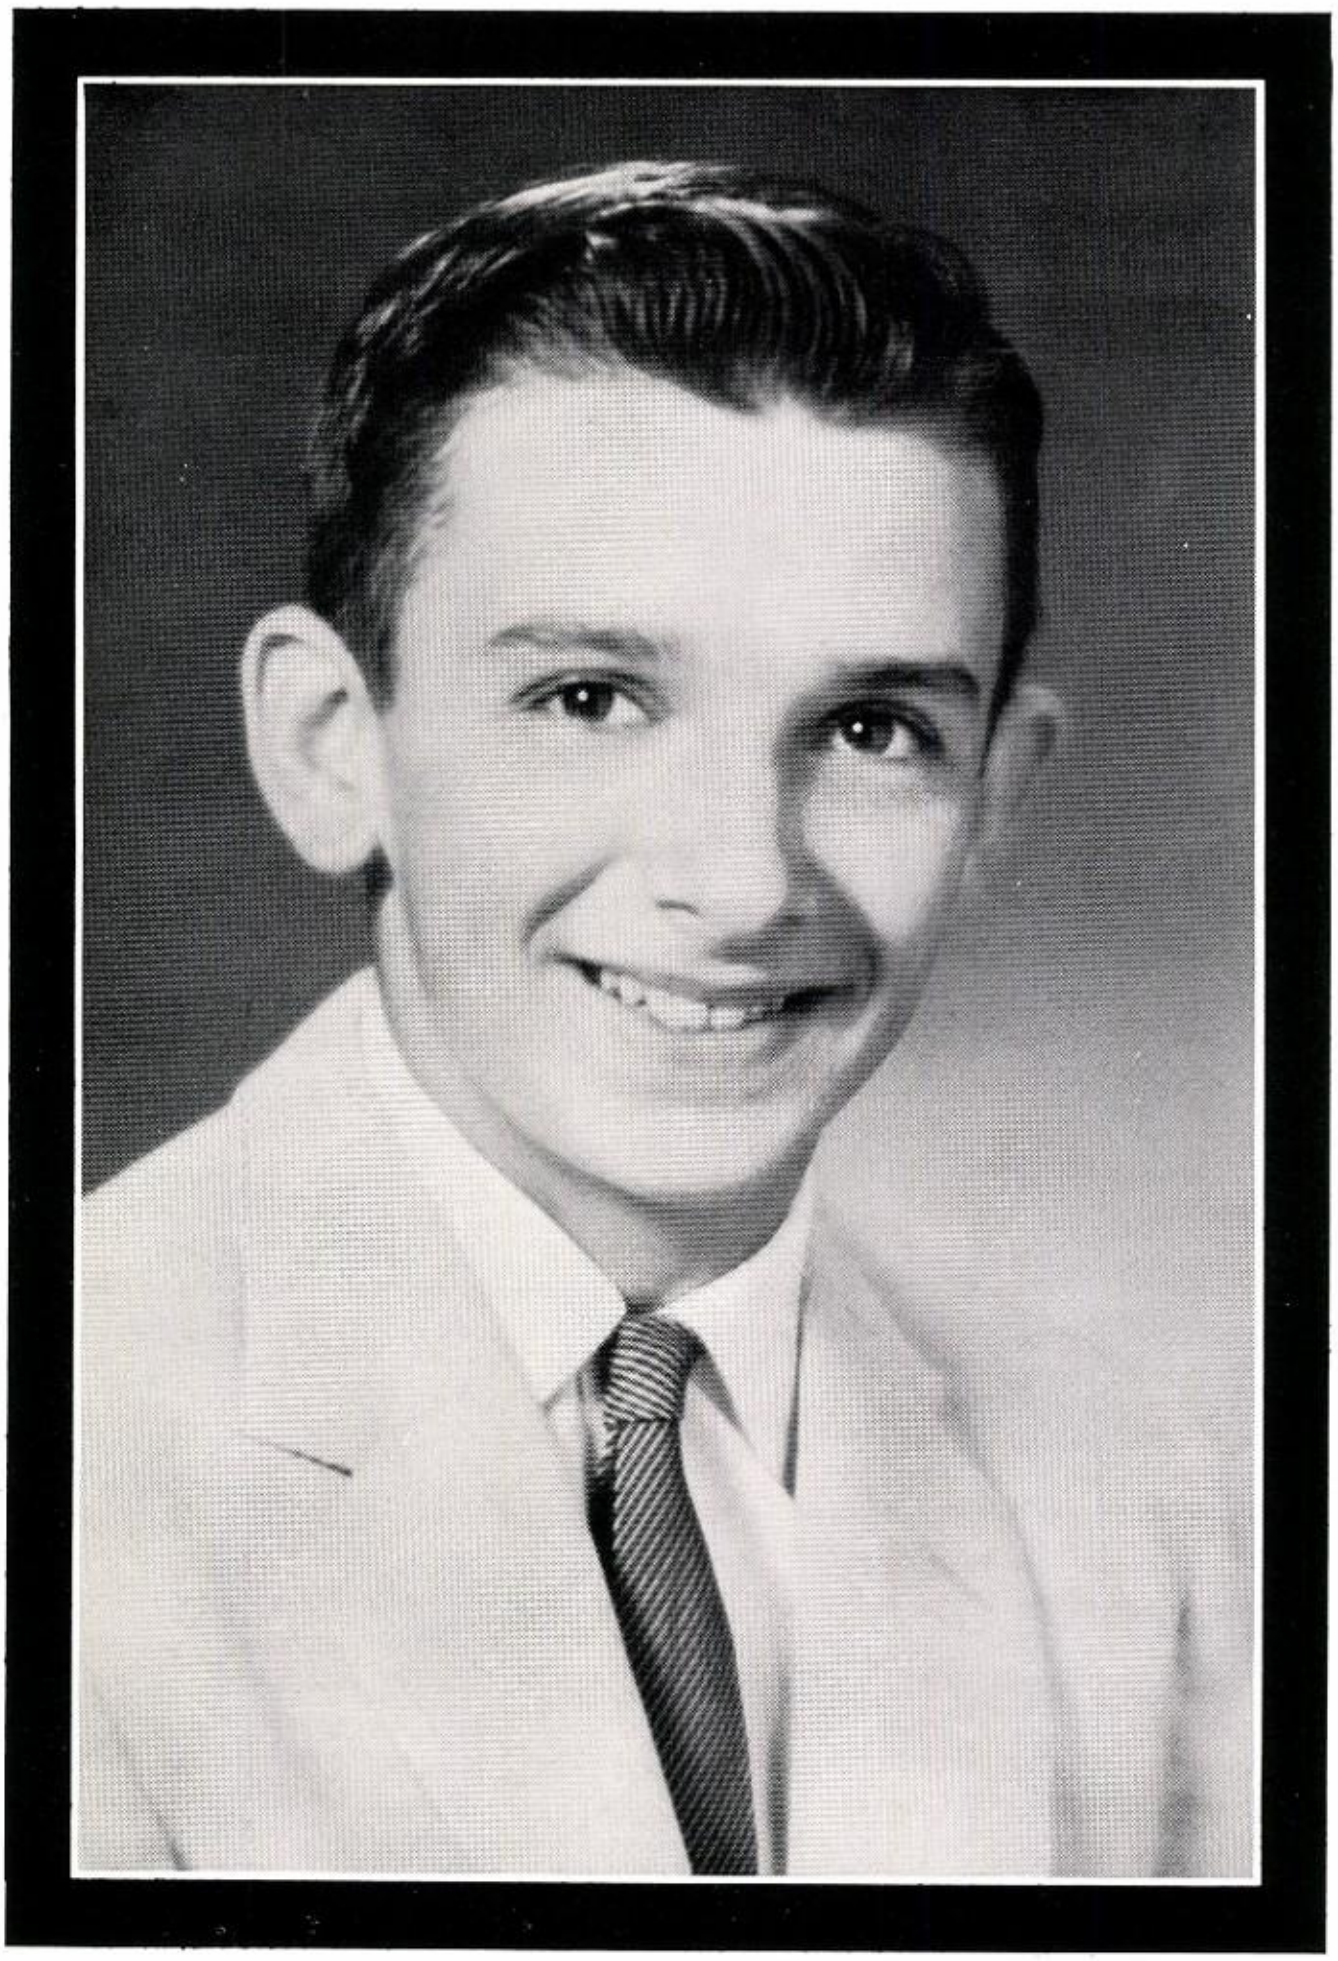
IN MEMORIAM



Because of his friendly smile, his eager cooperation and his sunny nature, he could have counted us all as his friends.

Because of his devotion to and interest in all phases of school life and the organizations of the school, his loss has left a place filled only by his memory.

Because he aroused the admiration and respect of all who knew him, we rejoice that it was our privilege to be associated with him for a time, and we lovingly dedicate this page to the memory of

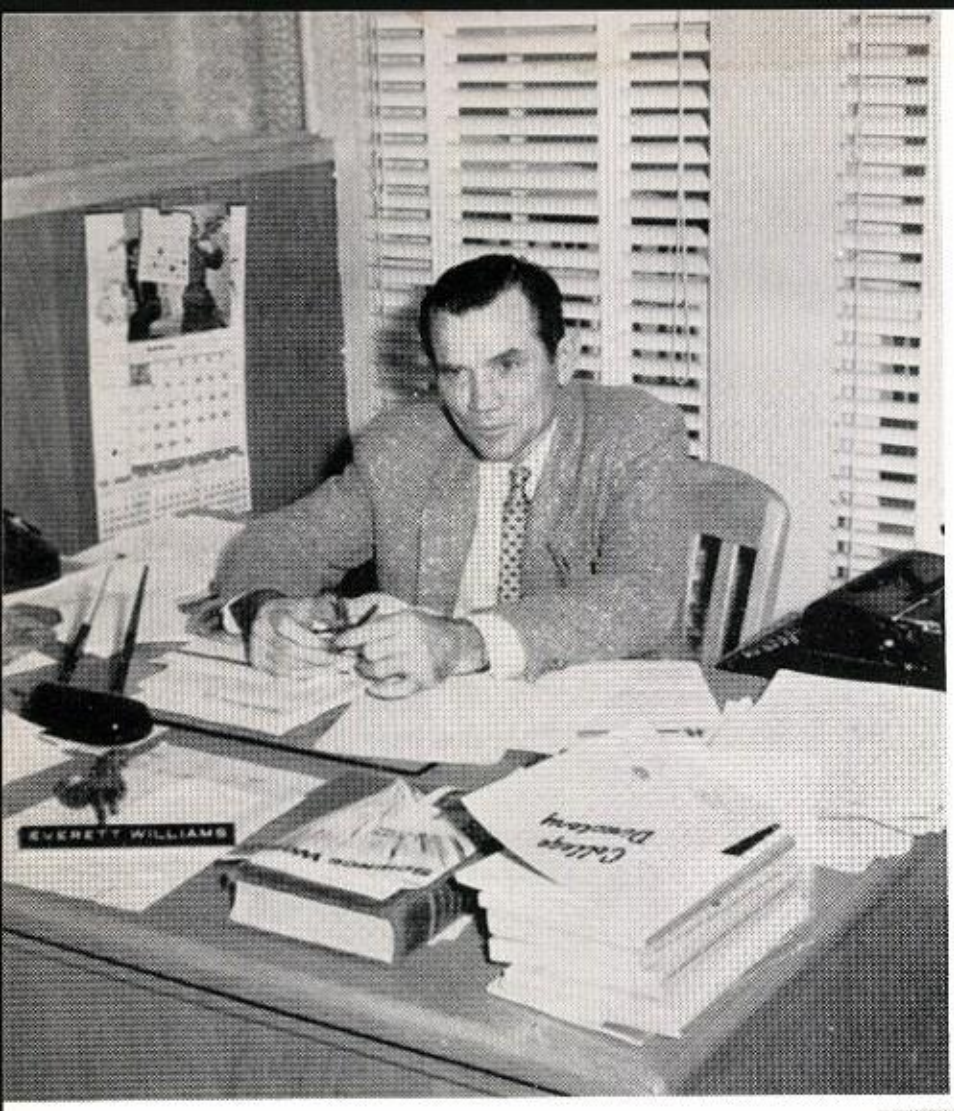
"Shall we use this one?"

After school work is necessary to produce a yearbook. Kathy Wiggins, Paul Hindelang, Mrs. McClain, Yearbook sponsor, and Allan Sanders decide which pictures to use.

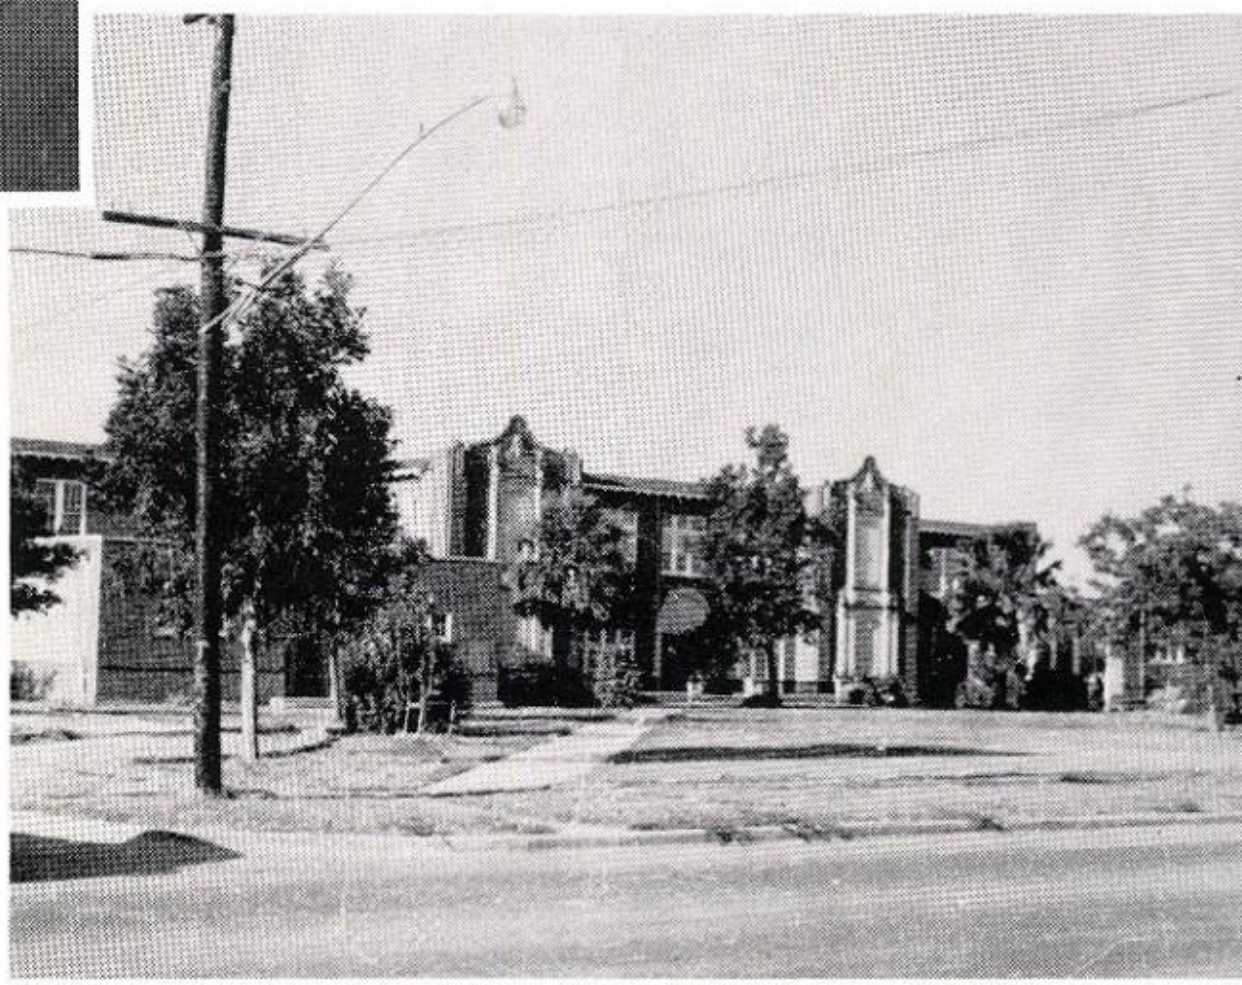
ADMINISTRATION



Our omnipresent principal, Mr. Everett L. Williams, better known to students as "Pop," is shown at his desk. Possessing a winsome character and enviable disciplinary tact, "Pop" has captured the hearts of students, faculty and community.

"As we leave these hallowed hallways,
We go with mixed emotions true,"

The very strains of the '58 class song reveal the sentiment felt over leaving Georgetown High School. This building and campus have been the scene of many memorable occasions important in the life of each student.



Mr. J. C. Barnes, Superintendent of the Georgetown Public Schools, works with our school board to give us the best teachers and equipment possible under existing conditions. The members of the board confer with Mr. Barnes on formulating the policies of the schools, and entrust him with seeing that these policies are efficiently administered. He is highly respected in District 10, of which he is a past president.

SUN

A SURPRISE TEST run off by our energetic biology teacher, Mrs. Barnes, may wake up some students for Monday, but it may make others even bluer than usual.

CONCENTRATION IS THE KEYNOTE HERE. A spirited explanation by Craig Davis and R. J. Mott of the intricacies of the atom holds the attention of Mr. Williams' chemistry class.

WHAT'S SO FUNNY? Soc 'n' Buskin members at a regular 3rd Monday night meeting are convulsed by the sophomore production "The Ghost Story."

EVERY MONDAY, but at rotated periods, sponsor of the Student Council, Mr. Murdock, meets with the representatives. This group is the nucleus of all the organizations in school.

TUESDAY

ON TUESDAY, HOMEWORK IS ASSIGNED, and everyone gets down to work? This is a typical study hall scene. These girls are very busy planning their studies for the week!

ON MANY TUESDAYS we find grouped around Mrs. Summers, voice teacher, groups especially interested in singing, who hurry their lunches in order to have time for extra practice. On this noon we caught Pat Fletcher, Lyndon Rosenblad, Imadell Burks, Carol Henderson and Karen Hausenfluke.

HAMBURGER DAY is frequently a Tuesday, and here are the cafeteria personnel preparing this well liked specialty. Shown are Mary Schwertner, student worker, and the ladies who prepare the meals every week day: Mrs. Eckdahl, Mrs. Williams, and Mrs. Whitfield.

"A FINE GROUP TO HAVE IN PAN AMERICAN FORUM," says Mrs. McCoy, Spanish teacher, who sponsors this organization, which usually meets on Tuesdays. These students shown are freshmen, and are a lively, hardworking group in addition to being pleasant, as their smiles show. Many sophomores are in P. A. S. F. also, and upperclassmen who so desire.

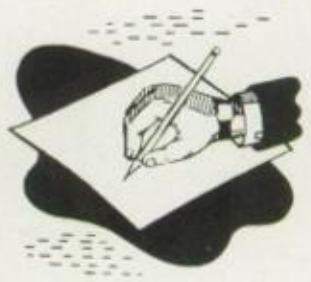
WEDNESDAY

IF A NEAT ROOM indicates orderly proceedings, who could out-do this group of Future Farmers, shown here in a regular 1st Wednesday meeting? President Jerry Morgan is presiding, and Tommy Raney is serving as advisor in Mr. Cairnes' place, while Mr. Cairnes acted as photographer.

WE HAVE BOYS among the Future Homemakers, even if we have no girls among our Future Farmers. It is evident from the portion of the group shown at a Wednesday meeting, that this is a very popular organization.

ANOTHER GROUP with Wednesday as a regular meeting date is the yearbook staff, listening to a discussion of an article in PHOTOLITH MAGAZINE on the subject of lay-outs. Imadell Burks is leading the discussion.

"WHAT'S IMPORTANT about Wednesday for this job?" asks Ernest Wilson and Johnnie Napier, custodians of the school building and ground. After consideration they decide that although the jobs go on all week, Wednesday afternoon is at least the half way mark.



THURSDAY

THURSDAY IS ASSEMBLY PROGRAM DAY. Here, at one of the first assemblies of the year, the yearbook staff is grouped around one of their props for their program which kicked off the fall sales campaign.

F. H. A. PRESIDENT, BARBARA WHITELEY, right, emceed the F. H. A. assembly which featured the Kitchen Cabinet Band, Neal Harris, and Jalane Carter and Audrey Guthrie.

THIS HILARIOUS AND COMICAL CREW of F. F. A. members stole the show during their assembly. They featured antics and take-offs on popular records.

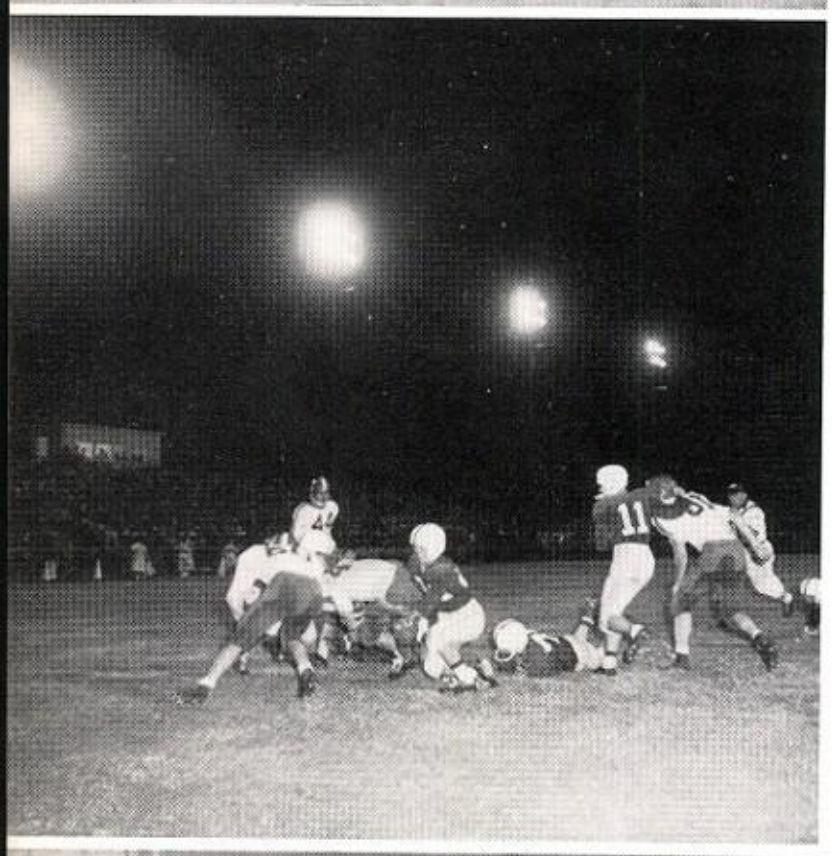
FRIDAY

YELLS LIVEN THE SCHOOL HALLS on many FRIDAYS, mostly during football season, but sometimes for basketball or baseball. Here, at a "Beat Belton" rally, cheerleaders encourage students to give their all.

PROUD RECIPIENT of the "DUCK ROASTER RIBBON" is Don Williams, who accepts the token from his father and principal on behalf of the senior class, who won the wood gathering contest for the bonfire rally which preceded the Taylor game. Stunts like this helped to build up interest and tension before games.



SWEATING IT OUT DURING THE BELTON GAME - as these uniforms show. To recall fall Friday nights is to feel the thrill, to catch a reminiscent odor of popcorn and hot dogs, and to hear the massive sounds from the grand stands.

DRILLS OR CONTESTS are well placed on Fridays for the junior high pupils who would rather not work too hard on this day. An eighth grade arithmetic class is lined up for a spirited contest between the self styled groups "Eagles" and "Geniuses."

MANY ORGANIZATIONS HAVE DISTRICT AND REGIONAL meetings on Saturday. The F. H. A. is one such. At the district F. H. A. meeting in Belton, the Georgetown chapter presented a skit characterizing good and poor club members. In this skit were Billy Hausenfluck, Joan Hausenfluck, Velma Stiles, Jo Guthrie, La Jean Glenn, Neal Harris, Jo Ann George, and Ruth Vogler.

SATURDAY

These eager expressions seem to ask, "What's behind the green door?" All joking aside, these band members, Joan Rosenblad, Mary Ann Jones, Larry Smith, and David Watts are closely examining the bulletin board, trying to see if they are in the regional band. For the past two years this contest has been held in Georgetown on Saturday, and the Band Boosters Club has run a concession stand to provide for out-of-town contestants. The chorus contest is also held on Saturdays, this year being in Waco.

FOR RELAXATION AND PRACTICE Charlie Williams, Lyndon Rosenblad, and R. J. Mott play a set of tennis.

On a Saturday morning in the fall several students and teachers leave for the LITERARY ACTIVITIES CONFERENCE in San Marcos. There instructions and assistance were given in the various events. On the trip back a late lunch was enjoyed at El Matamoros.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

CHRIST LUTHERAN CHURCH

FIRST BAPTIST

SUNDAY

ON ANY SUNDAY during the year you can go to any church in our community and find young people from Georgetown High School. Most of them are among the active members in their church and they enjoy making contributions to the church welfare.

One activity they all seem to enjoy is discussion, and many views are aired in the Church School classes. Church leaders feel that this is a healthy situation, and they hope that through open forums and guided Bible study, the Church will make itself felt in the lives of its youth and in the community.

STUDENT COUNCIL

INSPECTING COPIES OF THE SCHOOL SONG, BLUE AND WHITE FOREVER, are the Student Council officers. Selling of the song sheets was one of several money-making attempts undertaken by the Council. Officers shown are John Berglund, 3rd vice-president; Karen Smith, 1st vice-president; Jimmy "Bo" Guess, 2nd vice-president; President Jerry Thompson; Janice Glass, secretary; Karen Cole, parliamentarian; and Judy Chrietzberg, treasurer.

IN COUNCIL MEETING, students often consult Advisor Alvin Murdock. Mr. Murdock joins the Council in its weekly meetings.

MR. MURDOCK WAITS IMPATIENTLY for the delegates to the State Convention at Abilene to get all their belongings together. Karen Smith seems to have trouble keeping her suitcase closed. Other delegates are John Berglund, Lundon Rosenblad, and Karen Cole.

GUIDING ACTIVITIES OF THE P. A. S. F. is President Imadell Burks, center, shown with her co-officers Secretary Shirley Bradley, Reporter Janie Edwards, Treasurer John Berglund, Sergeant-at-Arms Paula Wheeler, Vice-President David Watts, Publicity Chairman Richard Finch, and Scribe Ann McKinney.

UNIT I President David Parsley, Vice-President Jimmy Petrosky, Reporter Donna Bishop, Scribe Randy Mercer admire last year's scrapbook as shown by Ann Barton and Kay Caskey. Not shown - Secretary Cara Snowden and Treasurer Judy Wolf.

SPANISH II OFFICERS: Jimmy McDonald, Vice-President; Paula Wheeler, Reporter; Rita Lefner, Secretary; Selinda Montgomery, Scribe; and Roylene Homeyer, Treasurer. Missing is Kay Raby, President.

Paul Hindelang, Carolyn Chambers, Paula Wheeler, and Jimmy McDonald, project committee, examine glass the P. A. S. F. installed in the Trophy case.

SPANISH SUPPER. . . annual project of the P. A. S. F. is their Spanish Supper which, due to the untiring efforts of the members and their sponsor, Mrs. McCoy, proved to be a big success this year.

F.H.A.

THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL: Joyce Anderson, Secretary; Jan Ischy, Song Leader; Helen Mercer, Reporter; Carlela Keys, Historian; Barbara Whitley, President; Mary Ann Jones, Pianist; Imadell Burks, Degrees Chairman; Kay Fredericson, Parliamentarian; Joan Rosenblad, Treasurer; Rosalie Smith, Vice-President.

LIVE and RADIATE F. H. A. was the theme of the State F. H. A. Convention held at the Municipal Auditorium in San Antonio. The delegates from our chapter were Kay Fredericson, high point girl, and Joan Rosenblad, incoming president. Each year the chapter sends the incoming president, state degree applicants, and the girl having the highest number of points to the state convention to get ideas to improve our own chapter.

These members listening attentively to a committee report are only a small portion of our club's membership. The meetings are usually held in the homemaking department with a program at each meeting.

F.H.A.

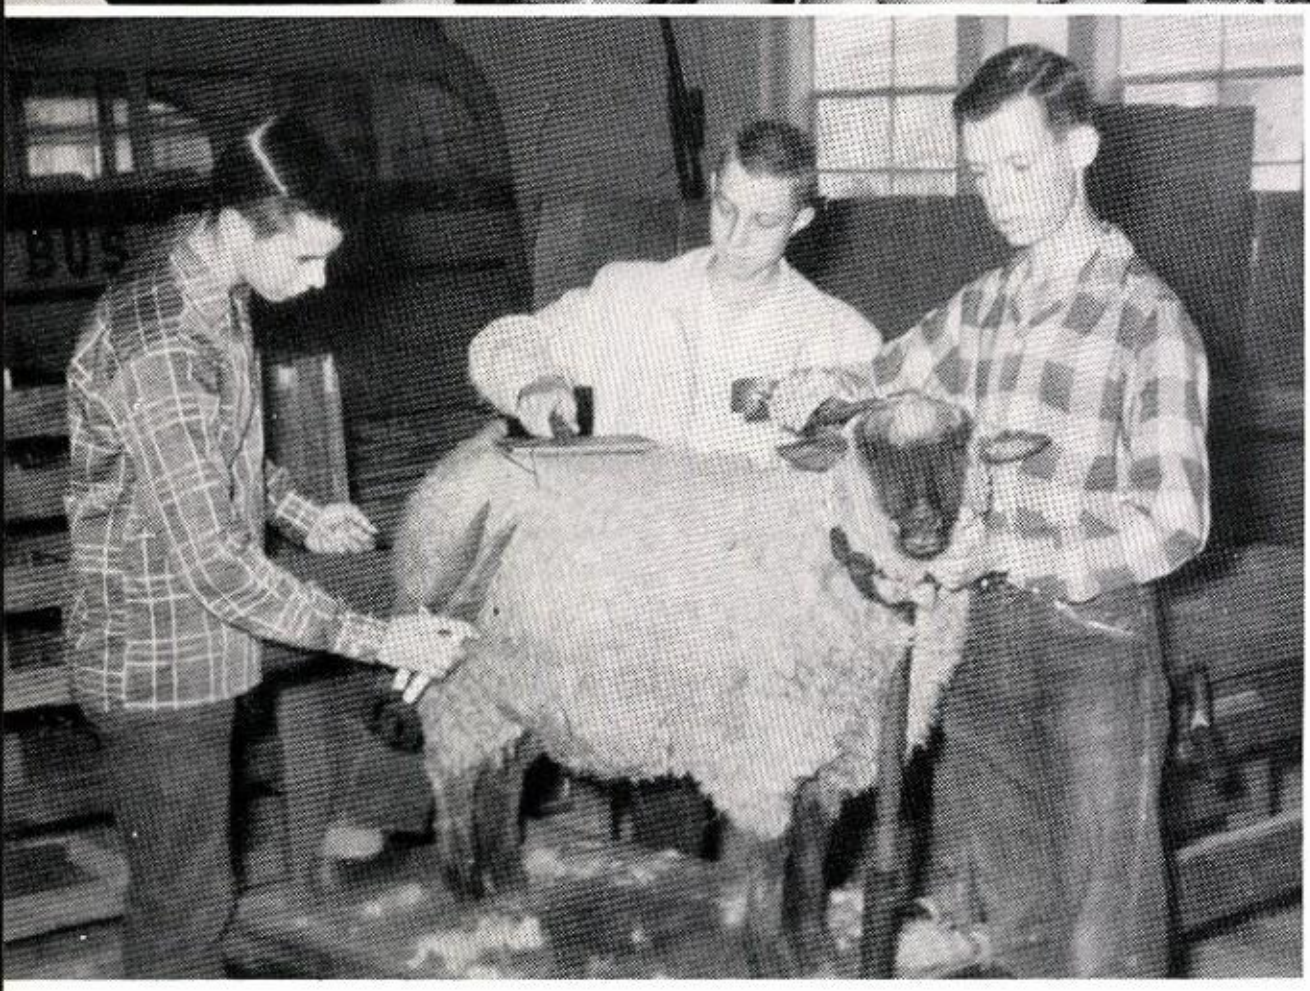
TRADITION always takes over for half a day during the school year, so that new club members can be initiated. As you can tell by looking at Catherine Miller, Grace Buchhorn, Terry Cox, Elaine Brady, June Jenkins, Linda Vogler, Billy Hausenfluck, Joan Hausenfluck, Joan George and Neal Harris, the school was filled with all sorts of masquerades.

THE CHAPTER presented a fashion show this year for the public which was attended by a large crowd. The only qualification to enter was that the garment modeled be made by the girl. Sandra Taylor, Rita Lefner, and Rita McCasland beam with pride while modeling their creations.

THE CHEMISE LOOK made its way into our fashion show and was modeled by Alice Valentine, June Denham, and Karen Thorne.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Under Mr. Cairnes' able leadership, our F. F. A. chapter has been revitalized. He demands and receives good service from these officers: standing, Harold Schwausch, sentinel; Pete Bouffard, 3rd vice-president; Charles Miller, reporter; Kenneth Buchhorn, vice-president; Mr. Cairnes, advisor; seated, Merlin Taylor, 2nd vice-president; Sammie Morris, treasurer; John Roberts, secretary; and Jerry Morgan, president.



BLOCKING LAMBS might be called a typical activity of F. F. A. Billy Hausenfluck, Jerry Morgan, and Harold Schwausch demonstrate their skill at this activity.

COMPETITION SHARPENS WITS, and our contestants Earl Smith, Joe Edgar, and Richard Kleen have good reason to smile as they display the first place banner won in the F. F. A. quiz at Taylor. They placed fifth in the area contest at San Marcos on November 9, 1957.

Champion fine wool ewe shown at Taylor Livestock show by Billy Hausenfluck. At Georgetown he won 2nd and 9th places with his Southdown fat lambs.

At the Taylor show Merlin Taylor's Ewe was champion Southdown.

Jimmy Doerfler won champion Southdown fat lamb at Taylor, and 5th medium wool fat lamb at the Georgetown show.

This champion Rambouillet ewe was shown by Earl Smith at the Williamson County Livestock show, March 10, 1958.

At the Williamson County Livestock Show, Thomas Williams won a championship with this medium-wool fat lamb.

Milton Wolbrueck won champion medium-wool fat lamb at the Taylor Show and champion fine-wool fat lamb at the Williamson County Livestock Show.

The Hereford bull shown by Joe "Butch" Perry was the champion at the Taylor show and at the Williamson County show as well.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

LENDING A BRILLIANT WAVE OF BLUE AND WHITE TO EVERY GAME AND RALLY. . . THE BLUE WINGS. Even more impressive is the cheering support given the football team by this organization.

THE BLUE WINGS

The three girls who did an outstanding job in directing the activities of the Blue Wings are Vice-President Carolyn Keese Hunt, President Betty Stubblefield, and Secretary-Treasurer Sandra Munson.

SOC 'N' BUSKIN

THE LINE UP, but this one is of National Thespians for the school year 1957-58. To belong to this society a member must accumulate ten points, and this takes work, 100 hours.

THREE ONE-ACT PLAYS, presented March 13, 1958. Below, a scene from "The Wonder Hat."

SOC 'N' BUSKIN

STRINGING POPCORN? No, indeed. This is a spring activity, and those strings are pink spring flowers which members of the speech class are preparing for "The Wonder Hat."

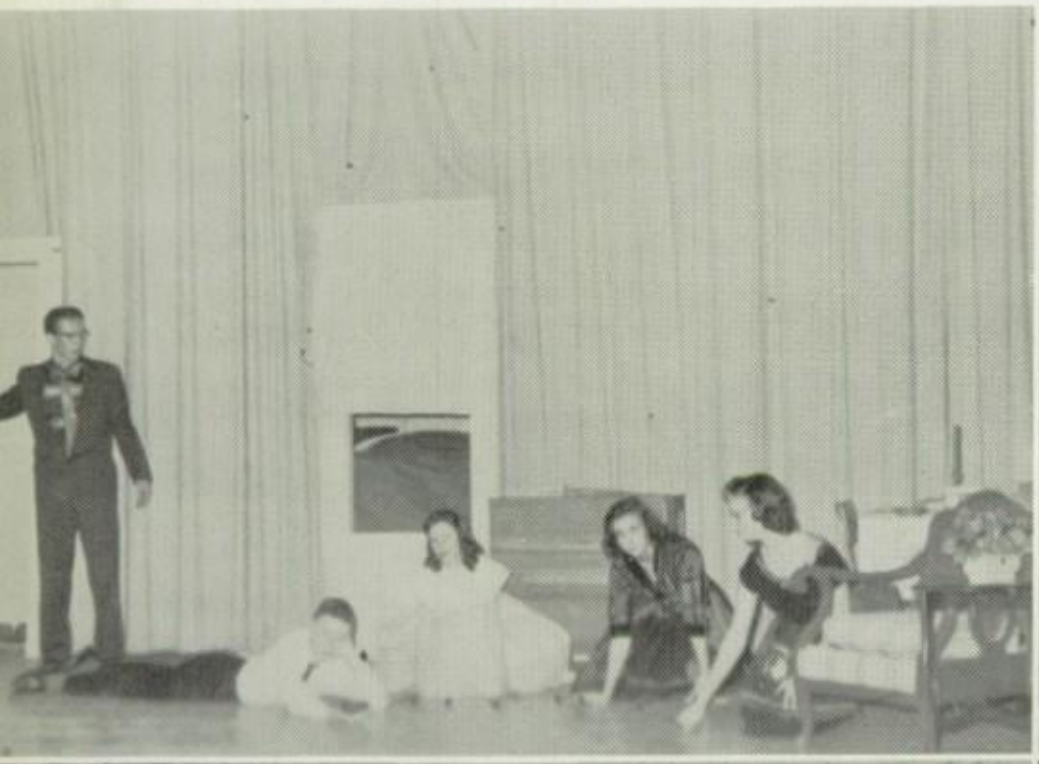
MAKE-UP ARTISTS here transform themselves and others into elderly people for "The Neighbors." Stanford Armstrong is about to become wrinkled. Two identified rear views - Sandra Munson and Sarah Jo Wheeler.

THIS IS NOT A FRESHMAN JACK GAME, but another session at picking up olives, a crucial moment in the one-act "The Perfect Gentleman," presented by an all freshman cast.

MEEK, MILD HUSBAND, R. J. Mott, asserts himself to his wife (Janice Glass) and flourishes a check in her face. Policemen, Don Williams and David Watts, suspect that the check is of no value but are impressed by R. J.'s lordly airs.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVITIES at Georgetown High included "The Christmas Tree," directed by Sarah Wheeler, at a joint meeting of F. H. A. and Soc 'n' Buskin.

CLIMAXING THE YEAR'S PROGRAM for Soc 'n' Buskin, was ARSENIC AND OLD LACE, a 3-act comedy - a hilarious success.



JUNIOR HIGH CHORUS

Although these junior high girls frequently have to meet after school, they are eager to participate in choral training which may enable them to sing in the more advanced groups. This large number indicates the enthusiasm which has been aroused by director Ruth Summers.

Junior boys chorus has to cope with a staggered schedule and the requirement Mrs. Summers makes of wearing bow ties when they perform, but they are still determined to improve their ability and to obtain more musical appreciation. We all realize that these beginning groups will mean superior senior groups.

We are justly proud of our Girls' Chorus, trained by our choral director Mrs. Mack Summers. Competition is keen; to be a member is an honor and a responsibility.

CHORUS

Freshmen and Sophomores make up the membership of the Intermediate Chorus, from which hardworking members who so desire may progress into Girls' Chorus or A Cappella.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR OFFICERS

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

THE A CAPPELLA CHOIR, directed by Mrs. Mack Summers, is composed of the most select voices in the high school. Having appeared on many school and civic programs and concerts during the year, the choir makes an outstanding contribution to the community. The choir assisted the band in presenting a Christmas concert and on April 21 gave their spring concert.

Even with a few missing persons, we think that our Eagle Band makes an impressive picture in concert formation. Not only does director George Nelson see that the band gives us good shows during football season, but we have had three fine concerts. Also our band has been highly praised by contest judges, and a large number of contestants receive a one rating at regional contest each year.

BAND

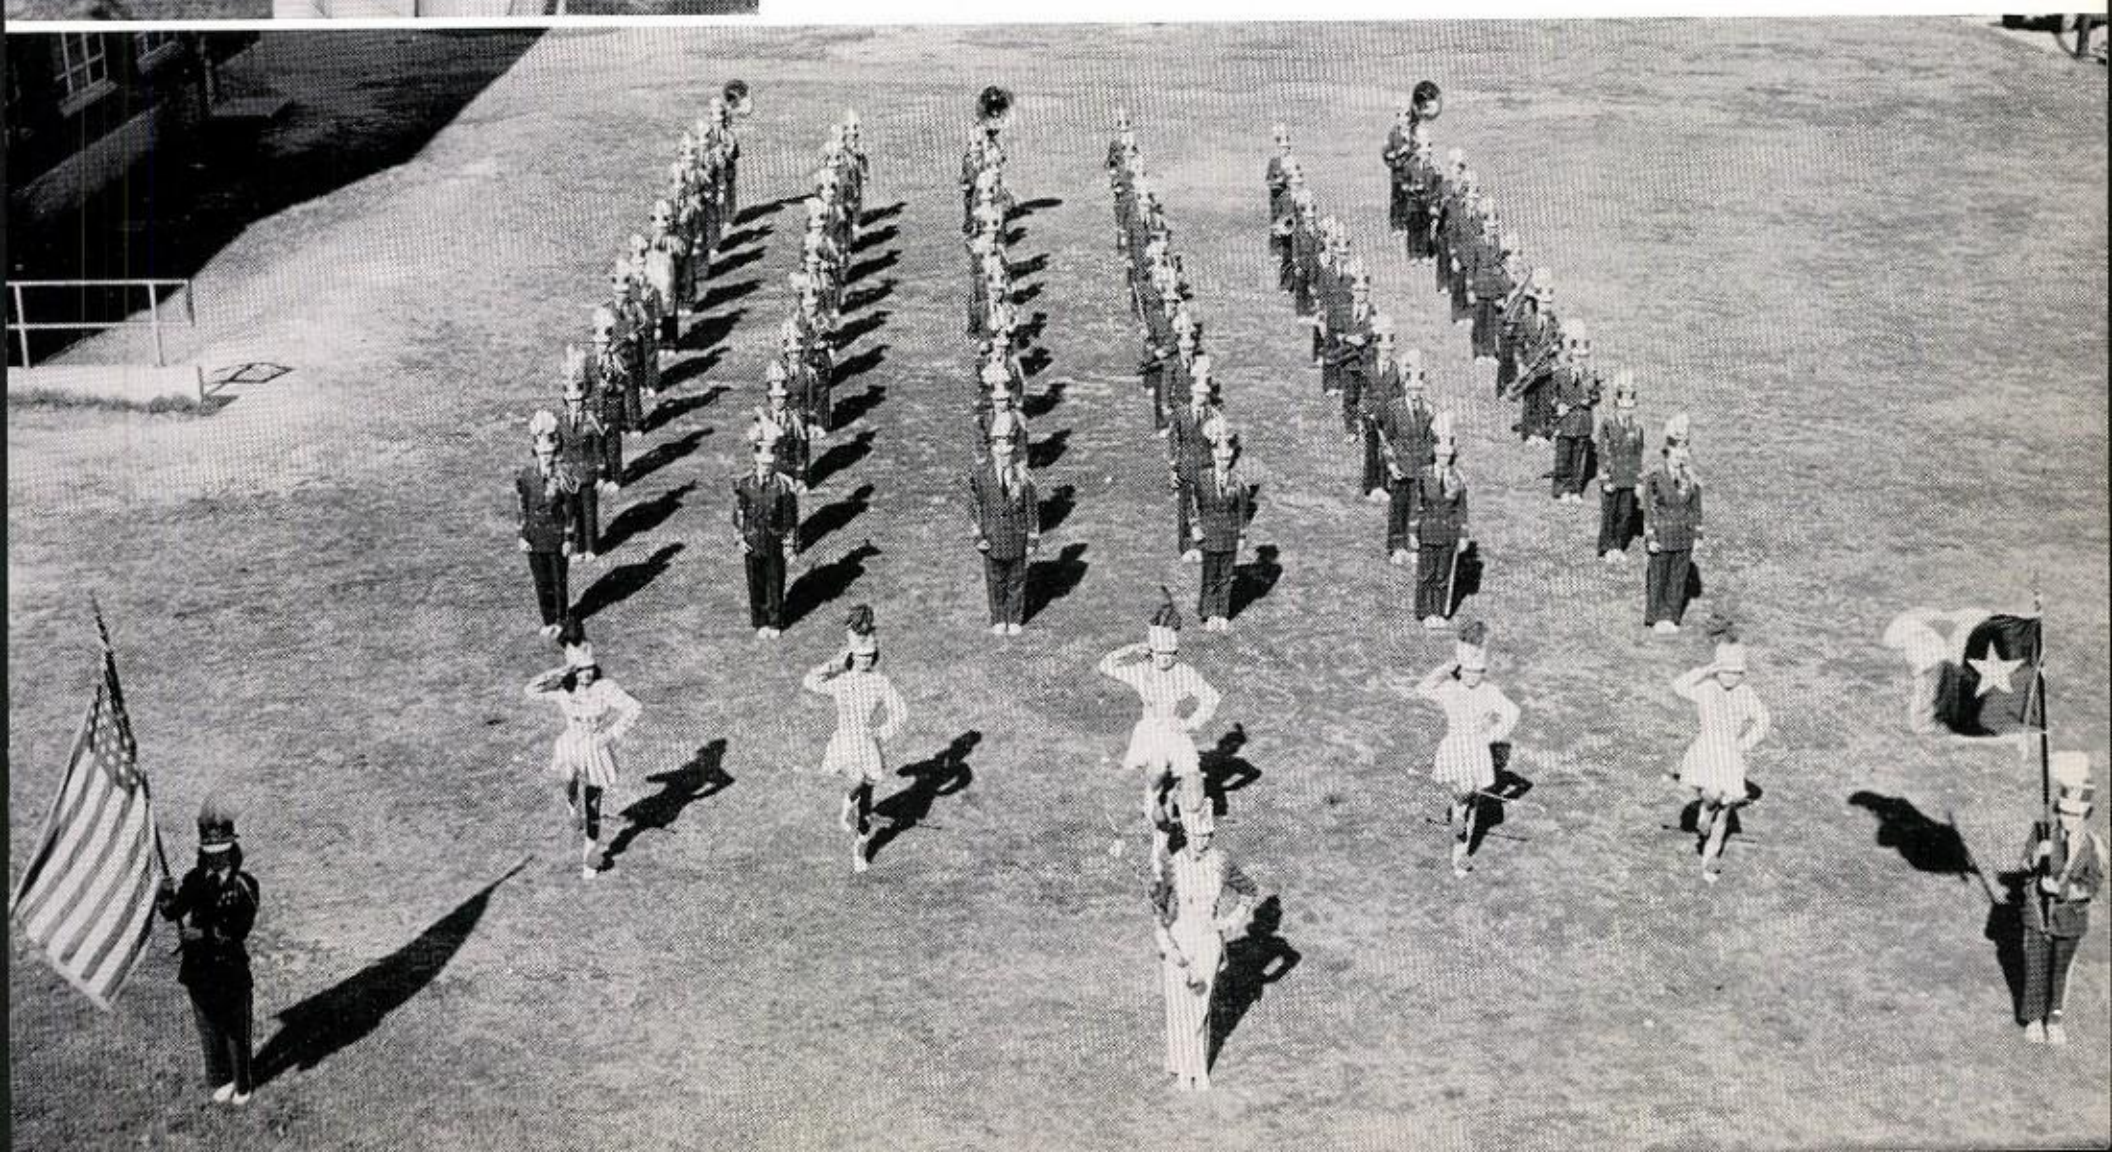
BAND PRESIDENT R. J. Mott leads a discussion among band officers about how much work will be involved in obtaining another one plus at contest this year. Other officers are Pete Aleman, custodian; Karen Thorne, librarian; Shirley Bradley, reporter; Paul Hindelang, custodian; and Carlela Keys, secretary.

Seniors, R. J. Mott, L. Eads, C. Henderson, A. Sanders, M. A. Jones, R. Smith, I. Burks, D. Watts, Z. Wiggins, V. Whitfield, and H. Mercer receive their band jackets for having accumulated at least 175 points on the rating system. The Band Boosters Club feels that those who fulfill these requirements well deserve to receive these awards.

BAND PERT AND PRETTY are the five majorettes of the Eagle Band. They are Pat Gamble, Jo Ann Rosenblad, Cathy Anderson, Karen Thorne, and Alice Valentine.

DIRECTING THE BAND in the half-time shows and parades this year is their competent drum major Mary Ann Jones, who led the band in impressive marching shows.

WINNER OF SEVERAL PARADE MARCHING CONTESTS, the Eagle Band brings home many honors. The band won the $100 prize for first place in the Lampasas Rehabilitation Parade and placed second out of approximately sixty Class "A" bands at the University of Texas Band Day.



BAND

MUCH PAINSTAKING EFFORT by Mr. Nelson and junior high students makes for good future "A" band members.

DIVISION I

On April 26, Georgetown High Band received a Division I in concert and sight reading at Interscholastic League Contest at Waco. Also, out of 32 Georgetown entries, 23 were awarded Division I's. The following are the "23."

FLUTE TRIO, Class I - Carol Henderson, Joan Rosenblad, and Meredith McClain.

WOODWIND QUINTET, Class II - Helen Mercer, Janet Steelman, Cathy Anderson, Shirley Bradley, and Carlela Keys.

CLARINET QUARTET, Class II - Rosalie Smith, Karen Thorne, Alice Valentine, and Joan Hausenfluck.

CLARINET QUARTET, Class II - Patsy Scott, Ann Barton, Elaine Brady, and Cynthia Lackey.

MIXED CLARINET QUARTET, Class I - Mary Ann Jones, Rosalie Smith, Billye Adams, and Pat Lackey.

WOODWIND SOLOS - Karen Smith, Mary Ann Jones, Larry Smith, Melvin McLaughlin, Carol Henderson, and Meredith McClain.

Not shown are the STUDENT CONDUCTORS - Karen Smith and David Watts.

BAND

SAXOPHONE QUARTET, Class II - Virginia Whitfield, Selinda Montgomery, Sara Buchanan, and Larry Smith.

CLARINET QUARTET, Class III - Sue Thompson, Joyce Partain, Carolyn Petrosky, and Theodore Rivera (missing).

BRASS SEXTET, Class I - Randy Mercer, Jerry Thompson, David Watts, Charlie Williams, Karen Hausenfluke, and Eugene Stabeno.

BRASS SOLOS - Bill Watts, David Watts, Randy Mercer, Karen Hausenfluke, and Orlan Ihms.

CORNET TRIO, Class III - Dan Aleman, David Parsley, and Lindy Anderson.

TROMBONE QUARTET, Class II - Richard Finch, Kelse Anderson, Pete Aleman, and Bill Watts.

THE CHRISTMAS SEASON of 1957 was given a special lift by a fine concert presented by the combined band and chorus. One especially beautiful number was "Gloria in Excelsis Deo."

ON MAY 17th the band gave as its spring concert a program which consisted mainly of class AAA music. Members of the audience were much impressed with the excellence of the performance.

SCHOOL PAPER,

THE EAGLE ECHO

KAY ADAMS - Editor

Mrs. Edwin, sponsor, who has reorganized and revitalized our paper, has to draft all her typists when the dead line is near. Back, Gay Bounds, Velma Cagle, Helen Mercer; Front, Sandra Elliott, Rita McCasland.

STAFF HEADS, to the left below, are Joan Rosenblad, Judy Chrietzberg, Kay Adams, Carolyn Faught, Karen Cole, Paula Wheeler, James Kimbro, Allan Sanders.

REPORTERS, standing, Karen Smith, Mary McCoy, Jan Ischy, Betty Stubblefield, Eileen Adams; Seated, Cammy Blackmore, Sandra Munson, Jane Edwards, Ann Wheeler.

THIS FESTIVE TEA was given for the members of our chapter of future nurses by Mrs. Turner, director of nursing at Breckenridge Hospital. The girls spent a weekend at Breckenridge, where they were taken on a conducted tour, exposed to the routine of hospital life, and given talks on the subject of nursing.

OFFICERS OF THE FUTURE NURSES CLUB start out for conference on the school porch. Pat Lackey, president; Joan Hausenfluck, treasurer; Rita Lefner, parliamentarian; Sara Jo Buchanan, vice-president; and Kay Glenn, secretary.

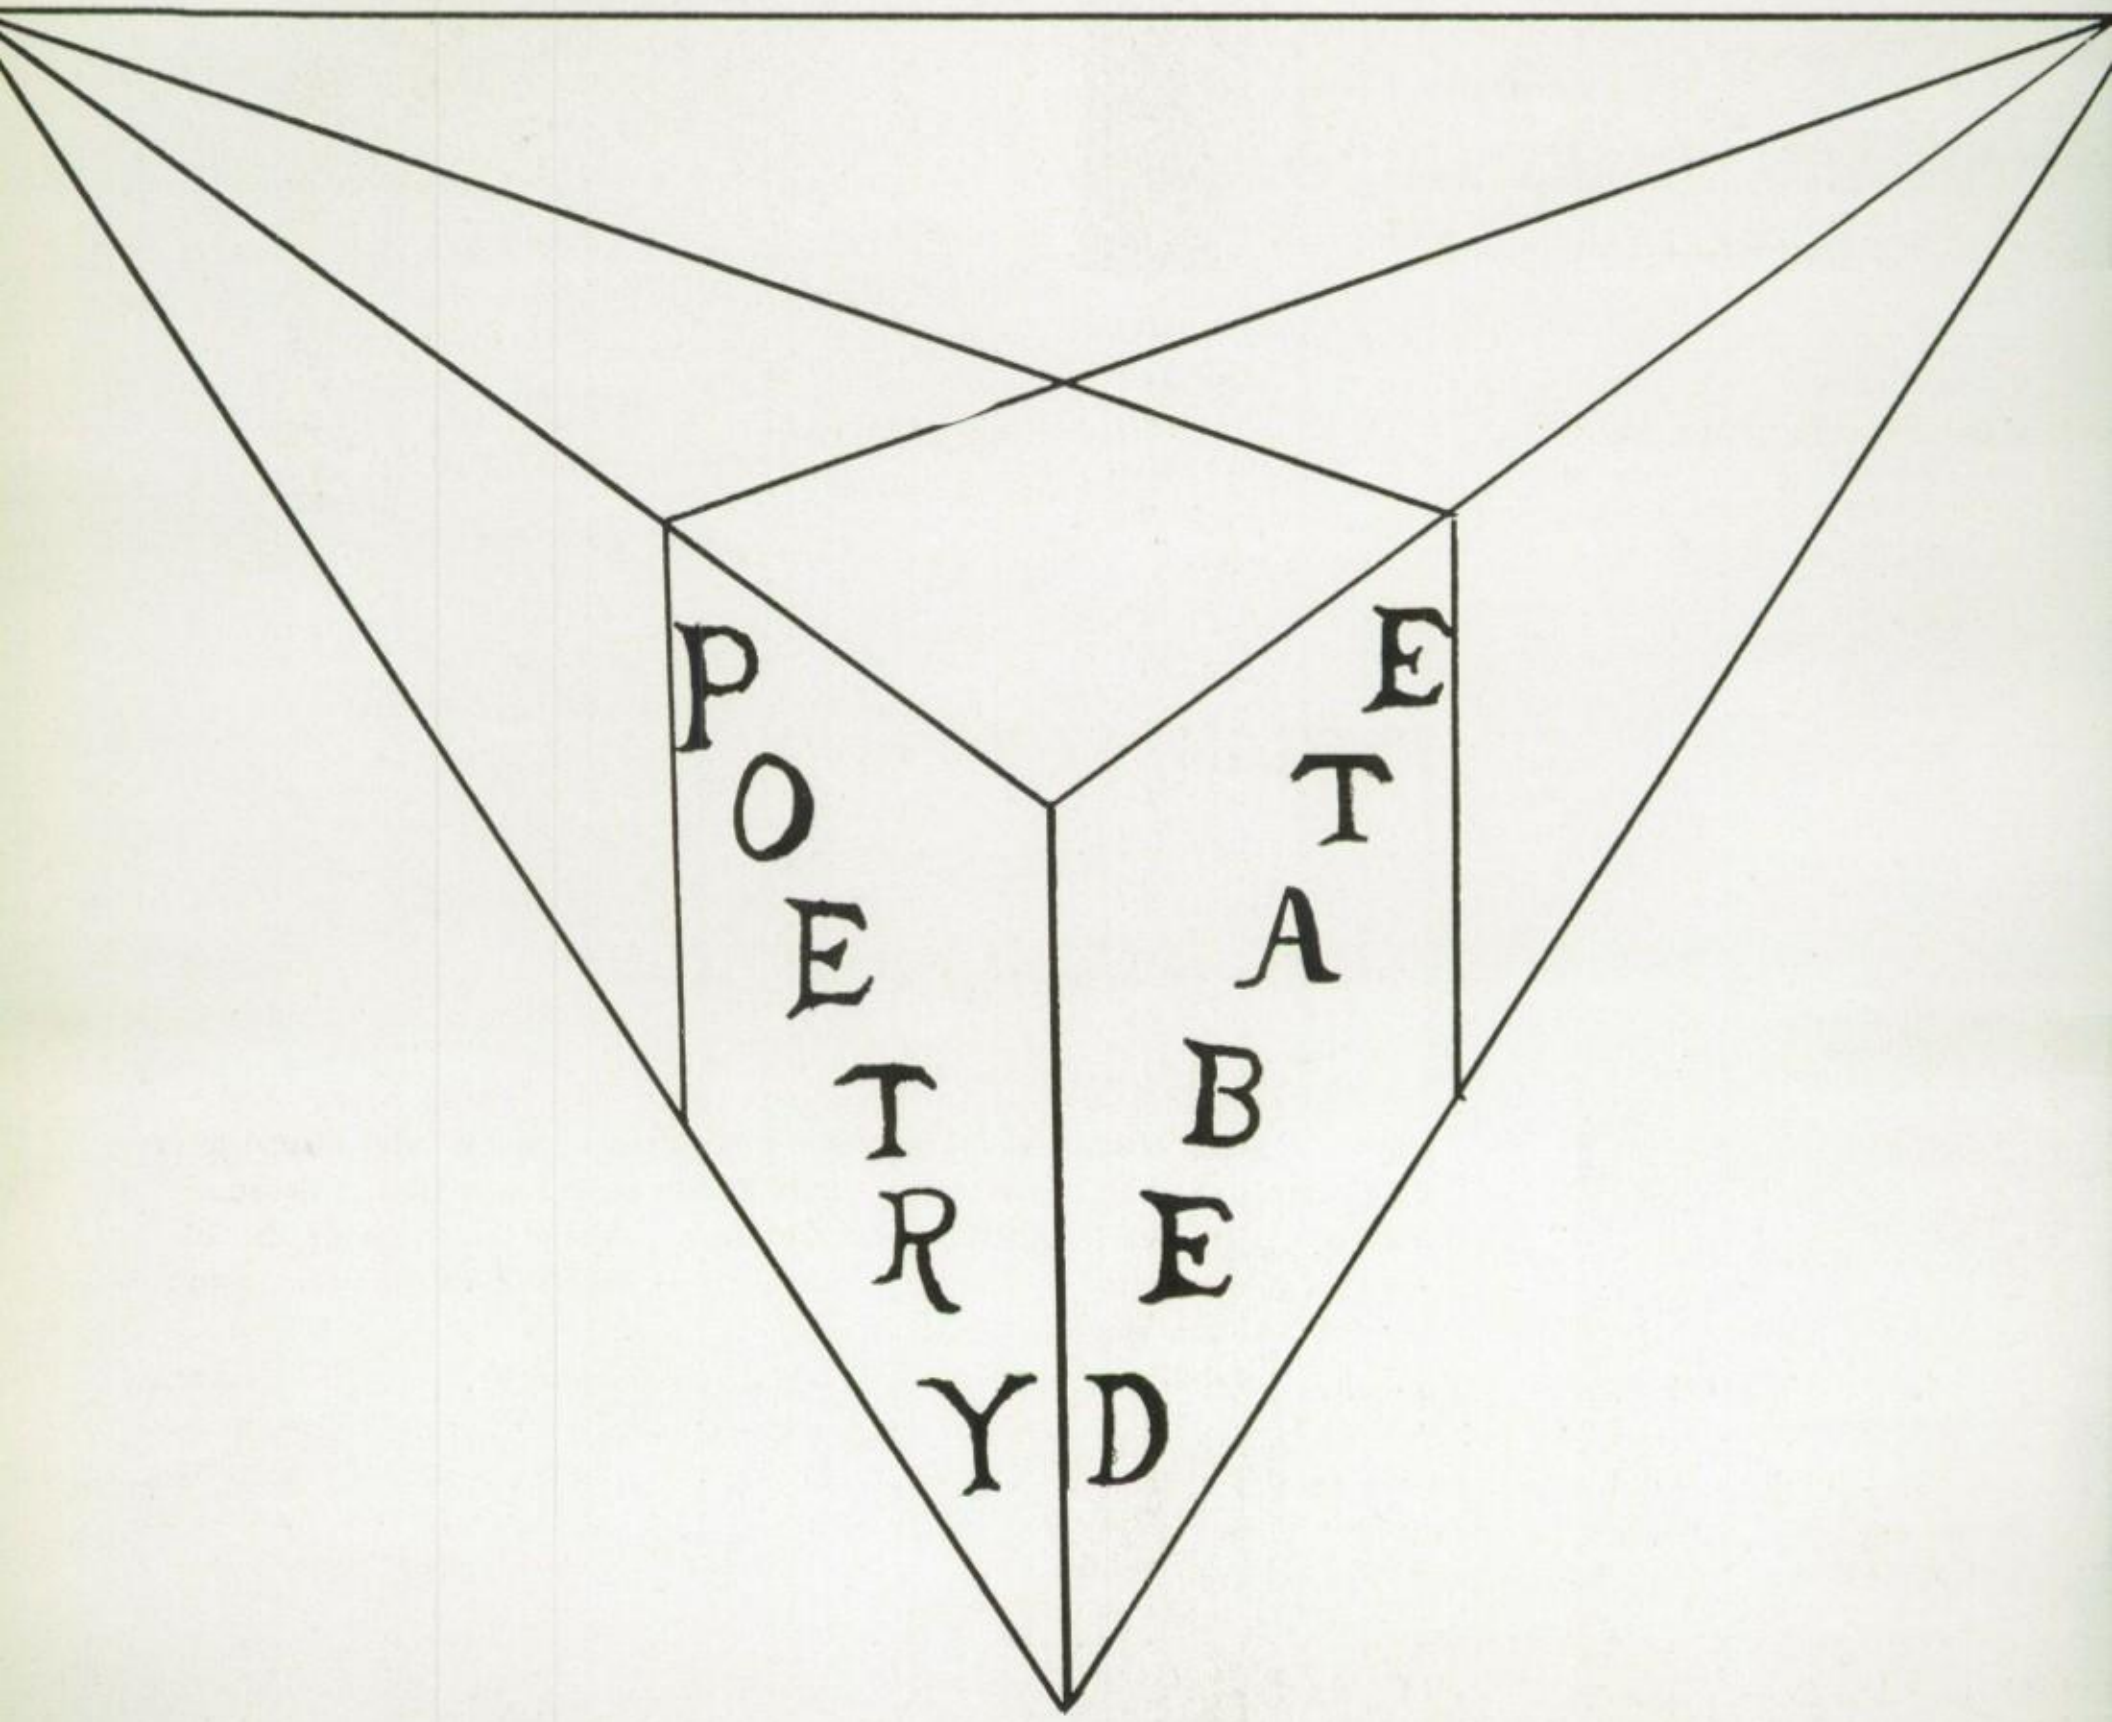
FUTURE NURSES CLUB

AND

REBEL RAMBLERS CLUB

THR REBEL RAMBLERS CLUB, composed of boys interested in every phase of cars and driving, is not chartered by the school, but many of the members contribute to the welfare of our school by helping with the noontime traffic problem. Here is Rodney Prenzler in action.

OUR "POP" WILLIAMS isn't exactly a rebel, but at least he's a Rambler, as shown here. The girls are in a hurry to get first orders at the drug store, but their safety is Mr. Williams first concern.



LITERARY ACTIVITIES

P.A.S.F. CONVENTION

GLEEFULLY, DAVID CARLSON, who acts the part of a servant, notices that Jimmy McDonald's cough is getting very sympathetic attention from the girl he adores, Selinda Montgomery. Judging from Mother's expression (Paula Wheeler), she is about to give her blessing to the pair. All this took place in the play "La Enfermera" (The Nurse), presented by members of P. A. S. F. at the Pan American convention, which is held in Austin each spring.

PATRICIA ROBBINS has really given up dolls, but she dressed this one as an entry for a P. A. S. F. contest, and worked hard to give her doll an authentic Spanish look.

JUNIOR HIGH TALENT

TO GIVE OUR JUNIOR HIGH GROUP a chance to compete among themselves, a spring afternoon was borrowed from classes, and all who wished to be on a program had an opportunity. Linda Tombs served as master of ceremonies, and Mrs. Dee Hausenfluck was the judge. First place winners - the 7th grade quartet composed of Pamela Penniman, Sylvia Thorne, Laura Weir and Jeannie Behrens, singing "Mr. Sandman."

The second group were all judged to be excellent also; Mary Ruth Queen's tap dance and Annette Labinsky's (last in line) song "Sugar Time" tied for 3rd place, and the two girls, Mildred Hill and Sylvia Thorne, who did a twirling act tied with Dane Evans, who played a piano solo, for 2nd place. There were other fine acts, and two weeks later, a quiz show won by Linda Tonn for the 7th grade and Sterling Eanes for the 8th grade.

"PUT A LIGHT IN YOUR WINDOW" put Alice Almazon out in front, for her interpretation of this song made her a first place winner at a talent show sponsored by the junior class and open to students from our entire school and from surrounding communities.

VARIEGATED ACTIVITIES

YOU HAD TO BE LITERATE, if not literary, to find your way through the halls the first week of May, for that was campaign week, and there were slogans, signs, mobiles, and pleas pasted on every allowable spot, as candidates for positions on student council and for cheerleader, contested for votes. At this assembly, campaign managers spoke for their candidates, after which students voted by secret ballot in their classrooms. Lyndon Rosenblad is here giving a campaign speech for Karen Thorne.

CANDIDATES TO GO TO BOYS' STATE are nominated from junior boys by their class, then carefully rated by teachers. Johnny Berglund and Jimmy Guess, who both ran for the office of president of the Student Council, were selected to go to Boys' State in Austin, where they will have fine practice in parliamentary procedure and self government. Their sponsors are the Georgetown Chapters of American Legion and the Lions Club.

Last spring Don Williams was the candidate, and his report was that he found the activities both instructive and stimulating.

UNCLE SAM shows a lot of interest in our high school boys. On this day, men representing various divisions of our armed forces talked up their own section to those they could interest in the subject. In order to get this activity and the one shown across in with literary events, we here insert this caption "Learning to Listen."

MARY McCOY FINDS A WILLING CONTRIBUTOR to the "March of Dimes" in Kay Fredericson, who really put in the fifty cent piece she clutches so firmly. These girls are volunteers who gave time outside of school hours to assist in this worthy cause.

DISTRICT LITERARY MEET

WARNING Sandra Pennington, who won 3rd in district this spring, are junior declaimers Pat Robbins and Judy Wolf, who are real competition.

SENIOR HOWARD BLEEKE, who won a district first in boys' declamations, here explains his technique to possible winners for next year, Jimmy McDonald and Paul Hindelang. After losing to Howard, Paul surprised himself by winning a district 1st in poetry reading.

SHIRLEY JORDAN, winner of 3rd place poetry reading.

OUR EXTEMPORANEOUS SPEAKERS John Berglund and David Carlson are hard at work, already laying plans to confound the judges next year.

DECLAIMERS frequently need to moisten their dry mouths. Senior declaimer Rita Lefner won first in district, so this proves that Sandra Elliott and Pat Fletcher lost out to real competition.

DISTRICT MEET

We are well aware that those who enter the literary events for the district meet will have to work and sacrifice. For this reason we feel that each contestant deserves honor, and we are proud of them all. We realize that each person who enters develops his abilities, and regardless of the decision of the judges, we consider each one a winner.

OUR TYPISTS - Carolyn Faught; Catherine Anderson; Mary Ann Jones; Joan Rosenblad; and Karen Smith, not shown.

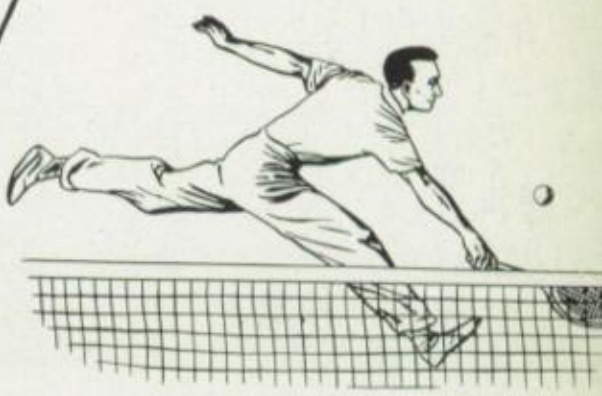
"NO FAIR TEACHING LYNDON TO SPELL THAT WORD, PAULA!"

Senior Lyndon Rosenblad hopes that sophomore Paula Wheeler will continue practice for next year's spelling team.

SOMETIMES READY WRITERS AREN'T SO READY. It takes thinking, you know. Rita McCasland and Pat Lackey organize their ideas. The judges were impressed enough to give Rita honorable mention.

PREPARING FOR DEBATE probably takes the most time of all. All honor to our team, Carlela Keys and Sarah Wheeler, who put in many hours of hard work.

SHORTHAND TEAM Rosalie Smith and Ann Love put in much time practicing after school for several weeks. Ann made third in district.



SPORTS

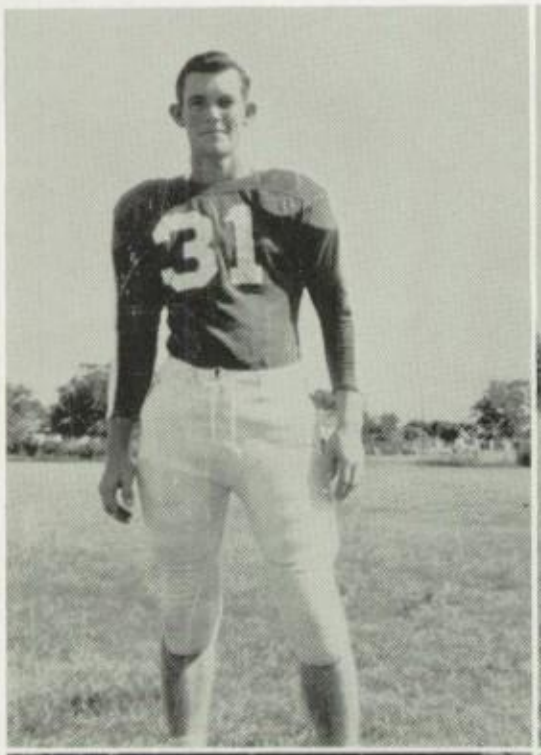
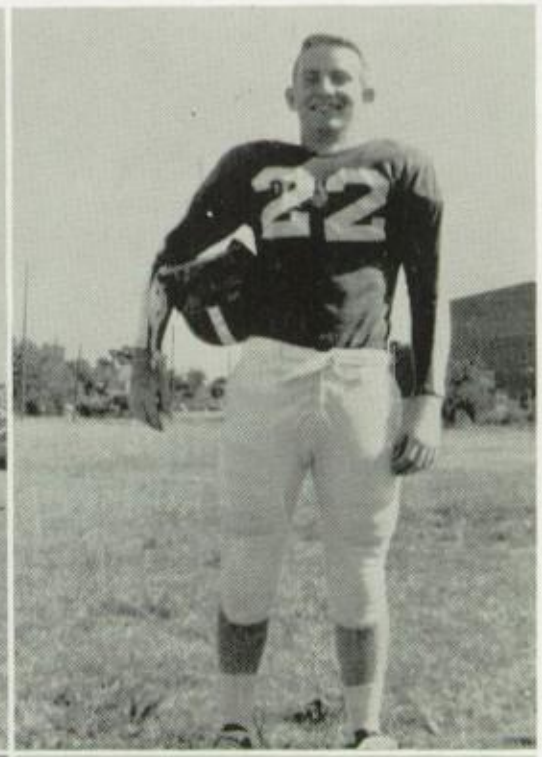
JOHNNY TOMBS, senior, has lettered three years as a guard and was co-captain this year. He made the 20 AA All-District team, the Austin American All-Central Texas team, and the All-State team. Honorable mention on the All-American Prep School team and selection for the North and South Coaches' team added to his honors.

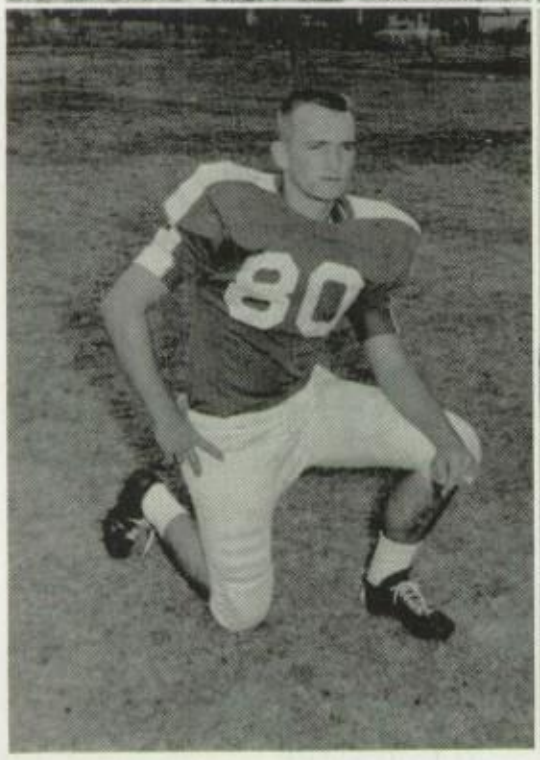
NEAL HARRIS, senior, three year letterman as a halfback, was named to the 20 AA All-District offensive team the last two years.



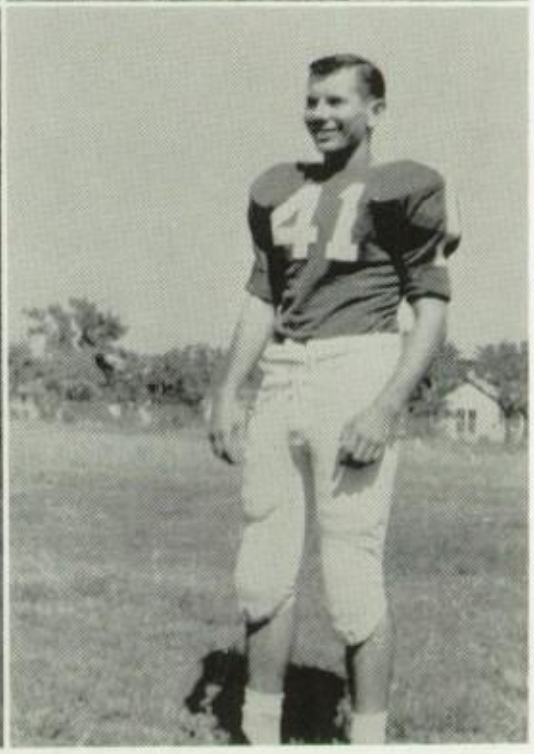
JIMMY BARRINGTON, junior, lettered for the first time this year as fullback.



DON WILLIAMS, senior, has lettered three years as quarterback.



BOBBY POPE, senior, co-captain this year and three year letterman as end, was also named to the All-Central Texas defensive team.

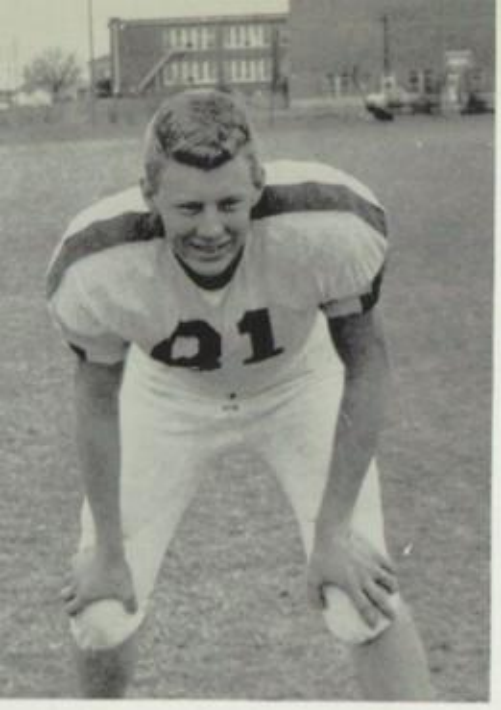


BILLY HAUSENFLUCK, senior, defensive halfback, lettered one year.

DICKEY STANLEY, junior, lettered last year as a quarterback and this year as an end. He was named to the 20 AA All-District offensive team.

JERRY THOMPSON, senior, lettered two years as defensive halfback; named to the All-District defensive team this year.

FOOTBALL

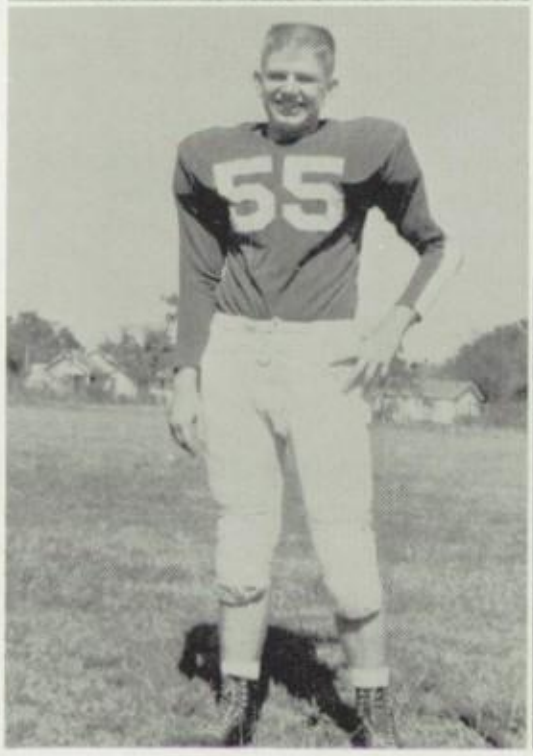


JIMMY GLOVER, senior, lettered two years as a tackle and end.

JAMES KIMBRO, senior, lettered two years as a tackle.

BILLY CASKEY, senior, guard, lettered two years.

KENNETH JENKINS, junior, lettered one year as a tackle.



LYNDON ROSENBLAD, senior, lettered for two years as a center.

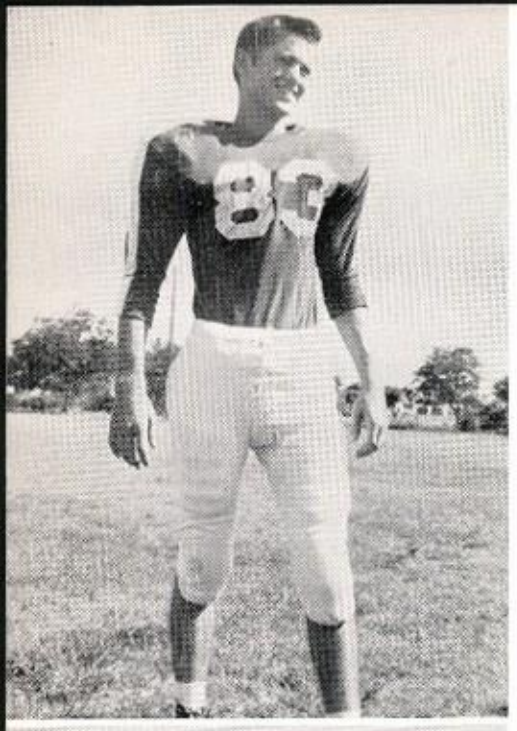
JIMMY GUESS, junior, lettered one year as a guard.

C. D. FOX, junior, lettered one year as line backer.

FRED DODSON, senior lettered one year as defensive halfback and quarterback.

TOMMY KIMBRO, right, junior, lettered two years as halfback, named to All-District defensive team.

FOOTBALL



TERRY COX, senior, lettered one year as end.

FOOTBALL

HEARNE GAME

Elusive Neal Harris evades J. Martin of Hearne and picks up 16 yards on this play. During this game Harris gained 110 yards and made two touchdowns.

ELGIN GAME

Below, clutching the ball and trying to shake the Elgin man who is wrapped around his hips, Tommy Kimbro plows toward the goal line for the third Eagle touchdown in the game with the Elgin Wildcats.

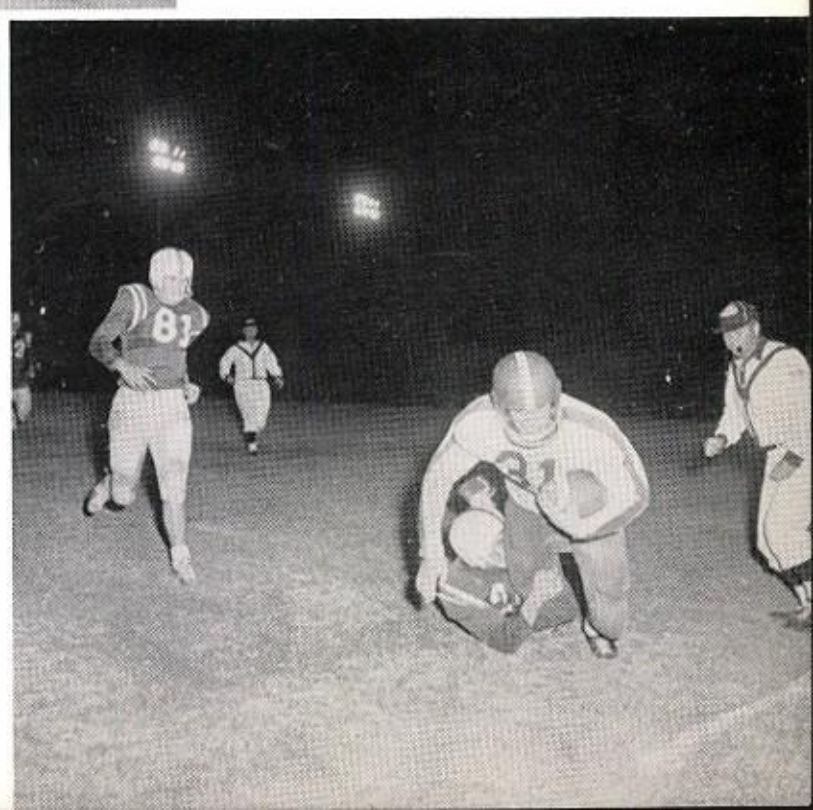
DURING THE GEORGETOWN-ROUND ROCK GAME, Tommy Kimbro breaks loose for six yards and an Eagle touchdown which accounted for one of five TD's by the Eagle "A" squad in eight plays. Reserves scored an additional six points.

Johnny Tombs, with the help of Dickey Stanley, end, runs down a Taylor player.

FOOTBALL

CHARGING DOWN FIELD after a Taylor duck, are defensive end Bobby Pope, defensive halfback Jerry Thompson, defensive end Dickey Stanley, and defensive halfback Neal Harris.



Jimmy Barrington, No. 31, appears to be tackled, but stumbles and regains his feet, completing a seventeen yard run. During the entire Taylor game, he gained 216 yards.

SINCE BETTY STUBLEFIELD IS A PETITE MISS, this football sweetheart jacket seems a little large, but at least it allows room for her to swell with the pride she felt when it was awarded to her.

BEHOLD "POP" WILLIAMS' jacketing his son Don, while team, coaches, and sweetheart, all resplendent in their new finery, patiently wait for the end of the assembly so they can strut a little in the halls.

"WE ARE GATHERED TOGETHER TO DEDICATE. . ." Rev. Jan McMurry, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, makes the dedicatory address upon the occasion of our first game played on the new field, that with Elgin, September 20, 1957.

AN AERIAL VIEW of our new football field shows the high powered lights, the dressing rooms, and the grandstands, which will seat 4100. We are proud of all these features, as well as the underground sprinkling system. After years of playing on Snyder Field, it gives us great satisfaction that our "Eagle Field" is generally conceded to be one of the best in central Texas.

"A" TEAM BASKETBALL

TOP: Clayton Hunt, Neal Harris, Dickey Stanley, Jimmy Glover, Jerry Thompson. BOTTOM: Johnny Tombs, Randall Mickan, Fred Dodson, Coach Stelzer.

Neal Harris holds the trophy for 3rd place in the Hutto tournament, Dickey Stanley holds the Georgetown roving tournament trophy, and Jimmy Glover holds the 1st place trophy from the 1958 Georgetown tournament.

"B" TEAM BASKETBALL

Possibly the "B" team subs are puzzled?

Jackie Klein, Manager; John Doerfler, James Boriac, Stanford Armstrong, J. E. Stubbs, and Edgar Wuthrich, manager.

How did we get this huddle picture? That's a trade secret of the yearbook staff! Randall Mickan, David Adams, Oliver Schwatz, Gerald Hill, Don Todd, David Woodfin.

BASKETBALL

GEORGETOWN WON PERMANENT POSSESSION OF THE ROVING TROPHY at the Georgetown tournament when they beat Taylor. Glover goes up for a jump shot to add two points to the score while Harris looks for the rebound.

ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM MEMBERS receive their awards from County Superintendent Gilbert Conlee. Georgetown is well represented by two outstanding players Jimmy Glover and Dickey Stanley.

FRESHMAN AND 8TH GRADE BASKETBALL

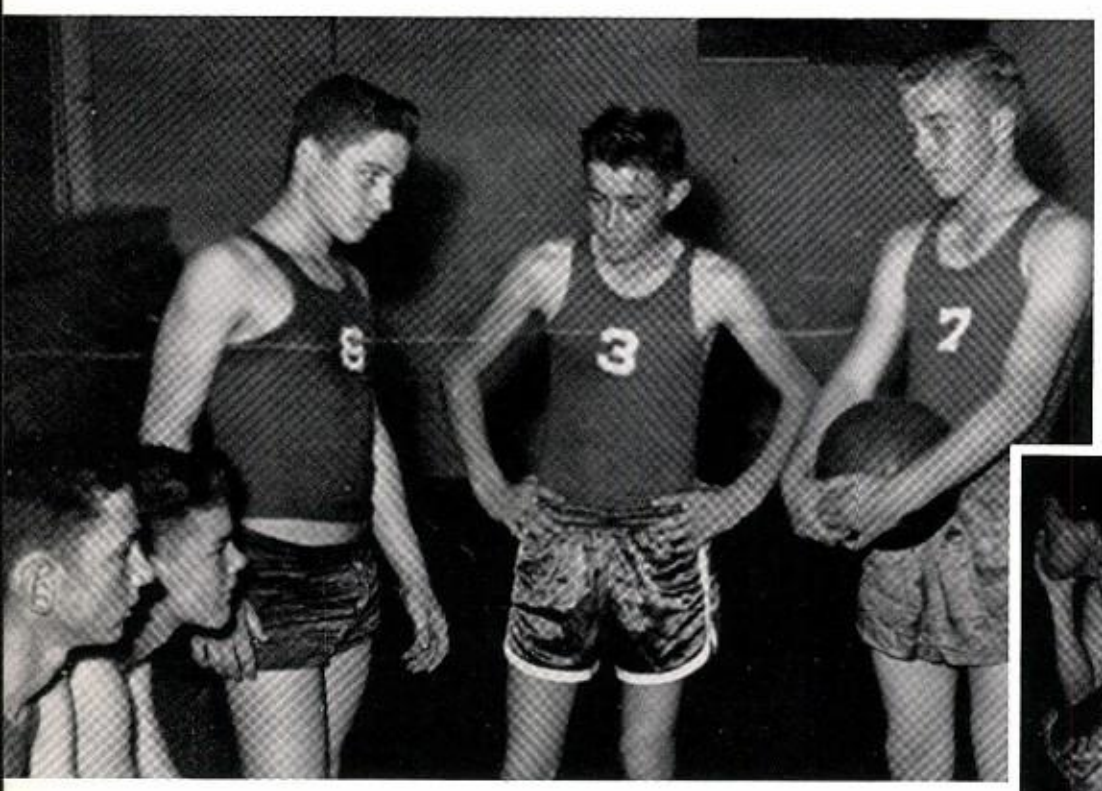
READY AND WAITING are freshman subs, Jimmy Petrosky, Mike Weir, Robert Bost, Jimmy Blackmore, and Bill Watts.



IT'S A SERIOUS MATTER to be an 8th grade starter. Shown in attitudes of deep concentration are Dennis Chapman, Tommy Etheridge, Jim Kauffman, James Morris, and Jimmy Holcomb.

INTENSE UPON THE GAME are the 8th grade subs, Jesse Smith, Ernest Morris, Bud Bredthauer, Stanley Keeling, Bernard Miller, Johnny Nunn, Charles Jenkins, Clyde Reeder, and Jimmy Don Buchanan.

CHEERLEADERS

CHEERS FOR OUR CHEERLEADERS, Judy Chrietzberg, Karen Cole, Carolyn Faught, Sandra Elliott, Betty Logan, and Cammy Blackmore, who paid the main part of their own expenses to go to Cheerleading School at S. M. U. last August, and consequently had wonderful rhythm and timing, as well as flash and zip when they led our cheering section.

IN ACTION, the cheerleaders are urging the student body to express themselves in positive manner with regard to their intentions and plans for Rockdale's team, the Tigers.

"ROAST THE DUCK" bonfire before the Taylor game gets good attendance and helps the cheerleaders fire up the spirits of the Georgetown rooting section.

NIGHT RALLY shows white costumes of cheerleaders to advantage.

FOOTBALL BANQUET

END OF THE FOOTBALL SEASON is always celebrated in early December with a banquet put on by parents who belong to the Football Boosters' Club. Seated at head table are the coaches, school officials and their wives.

FOOTBALL MOTHERS serve the banquet, but parents of senior boys enjoy the banquet by being seated with their boys and being served too.

MRS. ARMSTRONG, shown in the center of the picture at the right, is serving iced tea, and in the background other parents are awarding generous portions of barbecue, fruit salad and all the usual good items for this feast.

JUNIOR HIGH BOYS on view here seem pleased to be in attendance even without dates.

DON'T ASK THE EDITOR to name who's who in this or any of these pictures. Just pick yourself out, and if you're here, it's certain that you enjoyed the occasion.

WHAT A CATASTROPHE THIS COULD BE? Even though these boys, David Watts, Larry Smith, Mike Weir, and Billy Caskey (missing) seem to know nothing about golf, they combined efforts and won the district championship.

HAPPY, BOYS? They should be after winning 2nd place in district volleyball. They are: J. Draeger, J. Glover, J. Thompson, G. Hill, C. Hunt, C. Davis, G. Kurio, L. Leggett, F. Dodson, and D. Adams.

THE GIRLS' SOFTBALL TEAM this year consisted of: R. Johnson, A. Love, C. Chambers, D. Adams, P. Wheeler, K. Cole, B. Stubblefield, G. Love, and G. Shaefer.

VOLLEYBALL, SOFTBALL, AND GOLF

STRATEGY, THAT'S IT! Glenda Love is stressing this to her "B" team volleyball teammates, Linda Andrews, Jalane Carter, Evelyn Noack, and Carolyn Domel.

THE GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL TEAM played in many tournaments this spring; one in Belton, one in Taylor, and another in Florence. Ann Love was selected as outstanding player of the Belton Tournament. Here the team is displaying the trophy won at that tournament. The volleyball team placed 2nd in district.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT! This is what the girls volleyball team believes and does.

BASEBALL

THE 1957-58 TEAM: manager J. Glover, D. Williams, G. Hill, W. Keeling, T. Cox, J. Jordan, J. Domel, B. Caskey, Coach B. Lane, T. Williams, R. C. Leschber, F. Dodson, J. Tombs, N. Harris, D. Stanley, M. Jones, E. Wuthrick, and D. Adams.

MANAGER JIMMY GLOVER seems to be giving "Chick" Tombs last-minute instructions as the team boards the "ole" Ag bus for Leander on April 1.

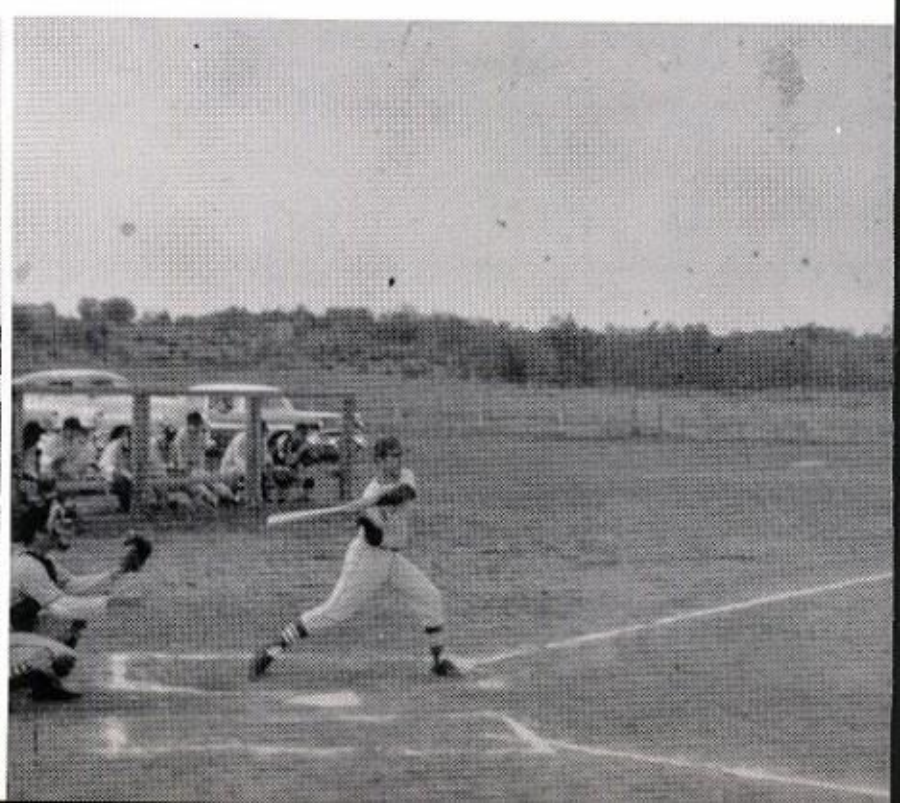
THE WINNING RUN! Fred Dodson grabs Johnny Tombs as Johnny reaches home plate, giving Georgetown the winning score during the second game with Belton. The final score was 4-3, favor of the Eagles.

ROUNDING THIRD BASE during the Belton game is Fred Dodson, the star pitcher for Georgetown. Fred pitched quite a few no-hit games, giving him the title of "No-hit" Dodson.

BASEBALL

TIGHT PLAY! During the 4th inning of the second game with Fredericksburg Hillbillies in the bi-district play off, Wendell Keeling slammed one with the bases loaded. Six runs in total were made in the 4th inning. Dickey Stanley is crossing the home plate here.

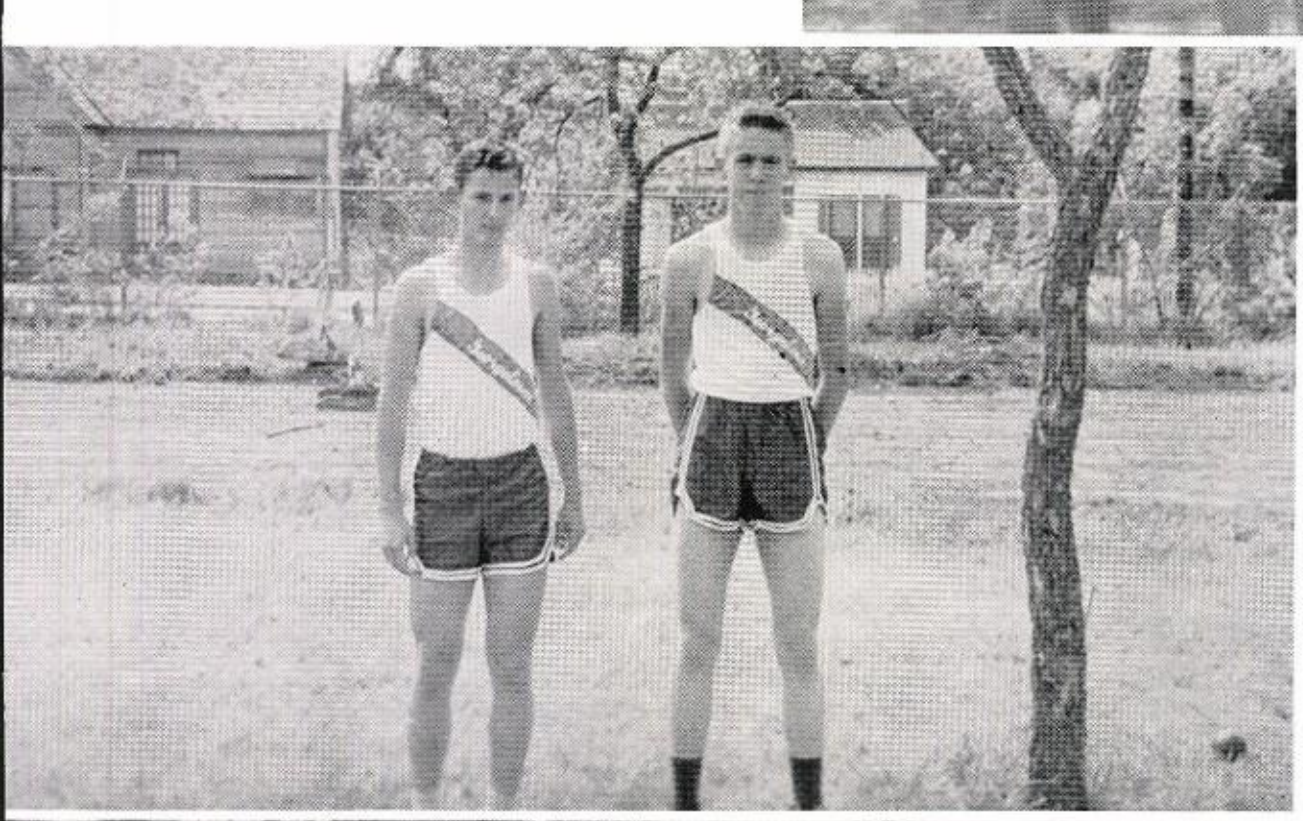
THIRD BASEMAN BILLY CASKEY puts power behind his bat as he swings at an oncoming ball.



BROAD JUMP, RELAY, SHOT-PUT, DISCUS

PRACTICING for the broad jump are Jimmy Blackmore, Mike Jones and Ronald Fox. Mike won 1st in the district broad jump; Jimmy placed 4th.

PLACING 2nd in the district 440 relay was the team composed of Jimmy Petrosky, Ronald Fox, Gordon Peterson, Donald Fox.



JERRY KNAUTH AND ROBERT BOST ran the 660 relay this year. Robert placed 2nd in the Killeen track meet.

MUSCLE MEN David Parsley, Larry Smith and Mike Weir worked out in shot-put, discus throwing and chin-ups. David won 2nd place in the district shot-puts.

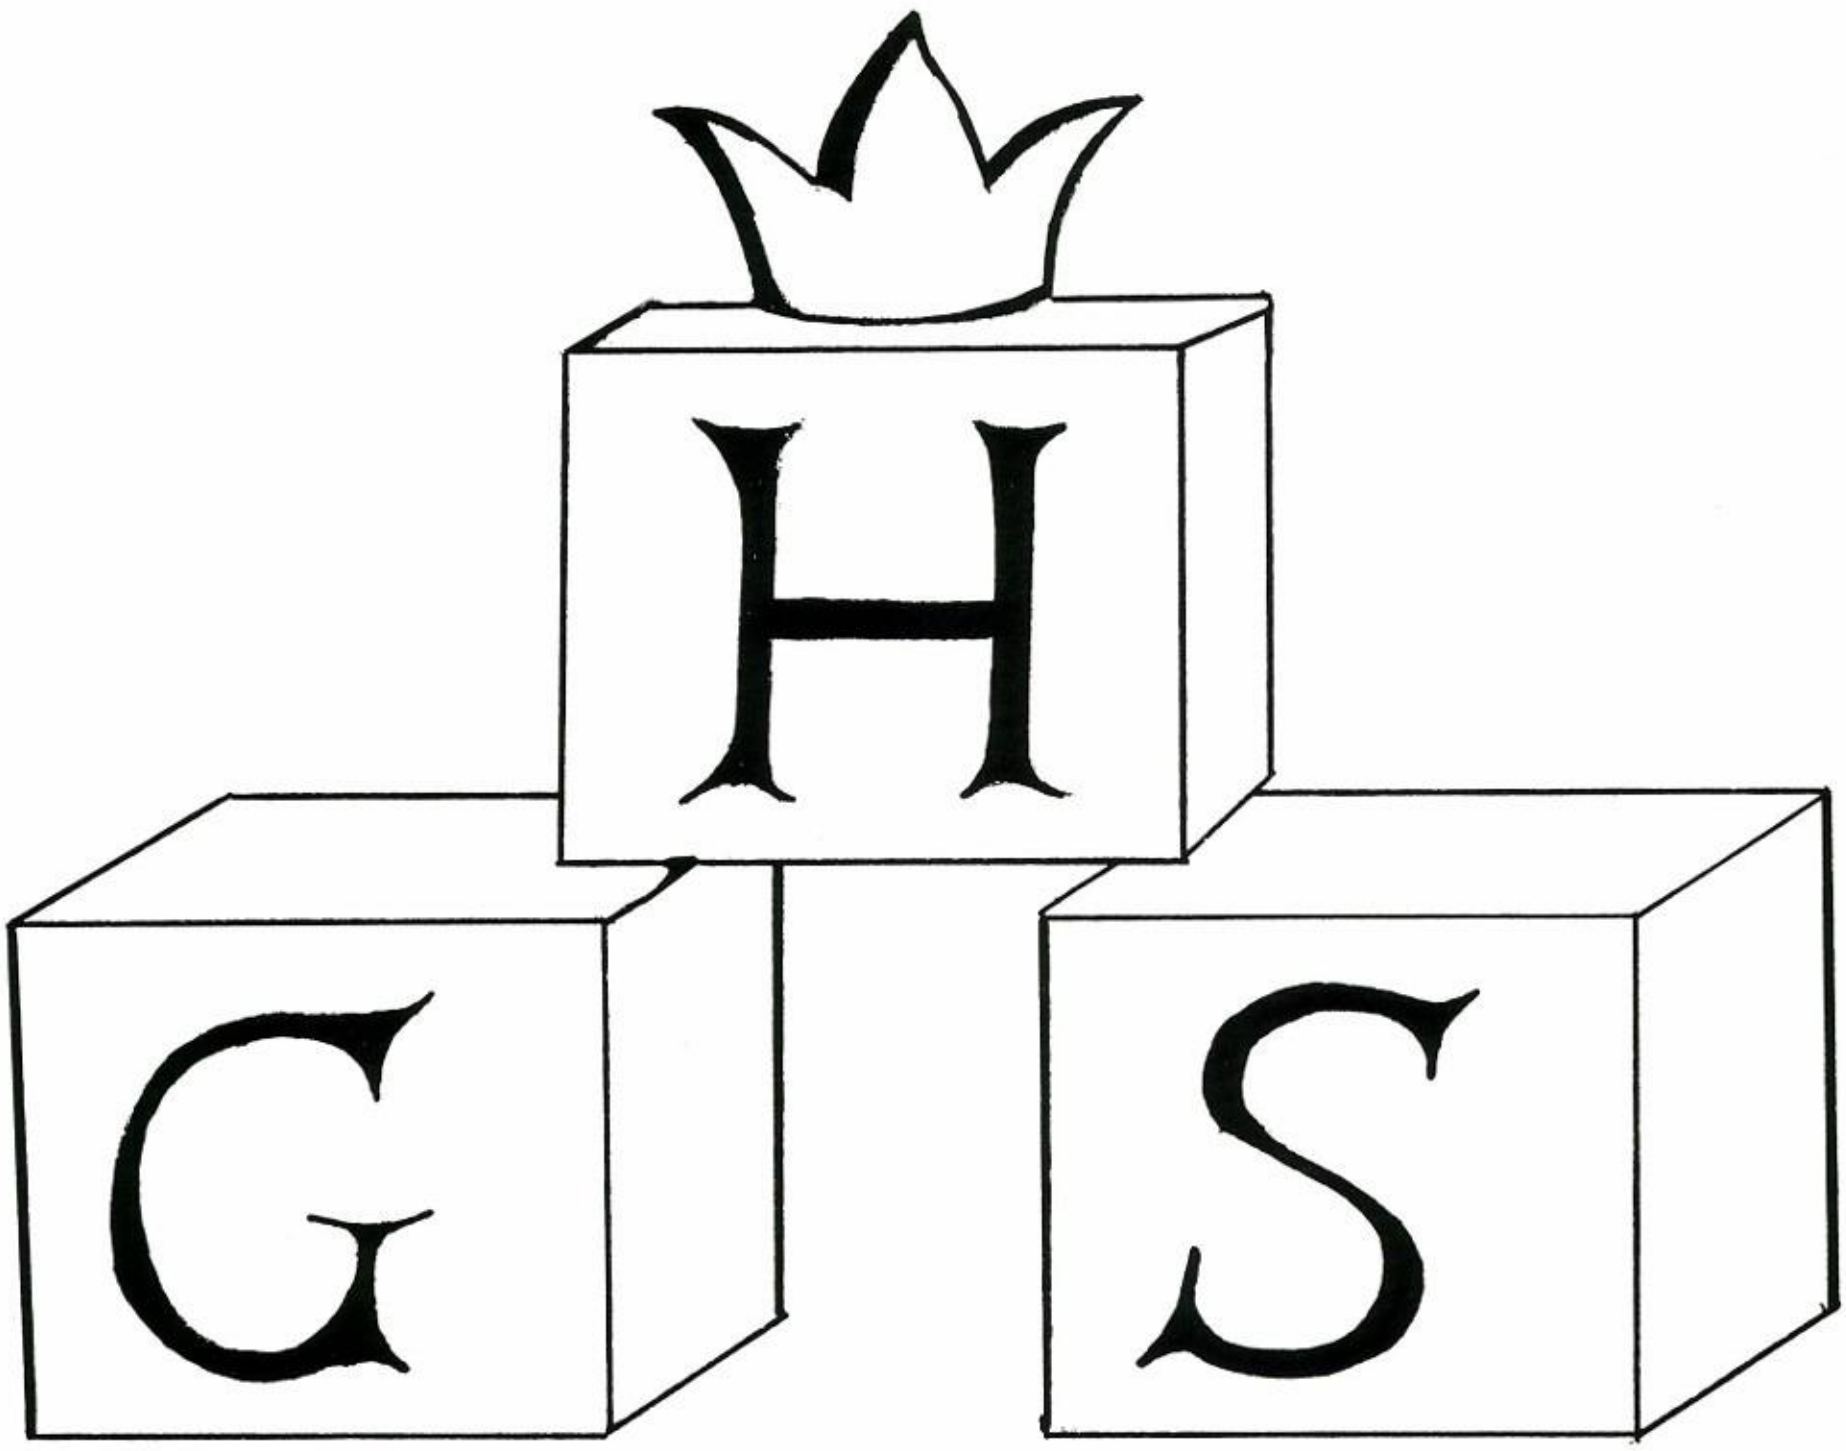
TRACK

The original track pictures were lost by the developer in San Antonio, so we had to call on some of the boys for other pictures shown here.

NOT EXACTLY IN TRACK ATTIRE, but nevertheless in perfect form are senior tracksters Billy Hausenfluck, Neal Harris, and Tommy Kimbro. These boys posted solid records throughout the season.

LOOKING AS IF THEY ARE ON THEIR LAST PEG are Stanford Armstrong, Randal Mickan, and Charlie Williams. Perhaps they have just came from one of their track workouts, or their condition could be due to the old malady felt by all during last days of school - spring fever.

THESE SPEEDY TRACKSTERS represented our school in the District track meet. Charlie Williams, Stanford Armstrong, and Daniel Vasquez ran the half-mile. And Terry Cox, right, placed 2nd in district on the mile.



FEATURES

MR. AND MISS G.H.S.

HERE IS ROYALTY! A brief moment before principal Williams announced the winners of the titles "Mr. and Miss Georgetown High School," the court and the crown bearers, Donna Davis and Richard Eanes, pause in anticipation. All here are already greatly honored, for they became candidates only after a double screening. A faculty committee selected by the Student Council recommended senior names to the whole faculty, who then chose these eight candidates.

CANDIDATES Imadell Burks and Howard Bleeke (first above); then Janice Glass and Jerry Thompson; Sarah Jo Wheeler and Lyndon Rosenblad; Mary Ann Jones and Don Williams.

QUEEN JANICE AND KING HOWARD, wearing the royal regalia, show by their serious expressions their awareness of the honor and responsibility which is theirs, since they have been chosen by teachers and vote of students as the senior students who most exemplify the ideals of Georgetown High - HIGH MORALS, COURTESY, PARTICIPATION IN ACTIVITIES, INITIATIVE, DEPENDABILITY, OPEN MINDEDNESS, PLEASING PERSONALITY, NEAT APPEARANCE.

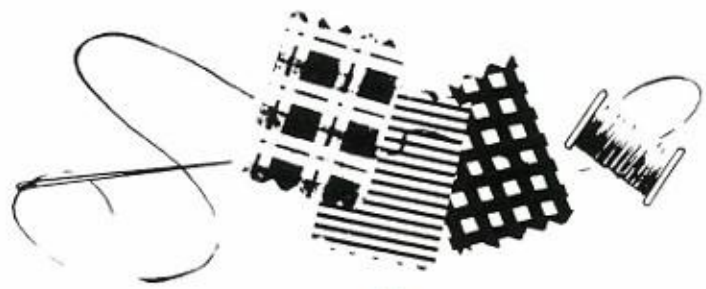
SUBJECTS and Queen at the coronation ball. At least one subject is completely under her spell!

F.F.A. SWEETHEART AND IDEAL HOMEMAKER

CAMMY BLACKMORE, chosen F. F. A. Chapter Sweetheart, proved to be an excellent choice, for this charming girl went on to win the title of District Sweetheart.

Across, Cammy receives Sweetheart jacket from Billy Hausenfluke, F. F. A. member.

WOW! THAT CAKE LOOKS DELICIOUS! And we bet it is, too, because the pretty chef is BARBARA WHITELEY, Ideal Homemaker of the F. H. A. Chapter. Barbara received this honor by popular vote of chapter members.



F.H.A. BEAU AND PARENTS

FOR ME? Neal Harris, the F. H. A. Beau, doesn't know what to do first - admire the dress held by Elaine Brady, sample the cake offered by Glenda Love, or accept the boutonniere presented him by Geraldine Krejci. Neal was elected by secret ballot from several nominees by F. H. A. members. Incidentally, Neal is an F. H. A. 'er.

AT THE F. H. A. BANQUET Mr. and Mrs. Buck Burkland were announced as Chapter Parents. They are Neal's sister and brother-in-law. President Barbara Whiteley is presenting them a gift.

D.A.R. AND BETTY CROCKER AWARDS

MARY ANN JONES, recipient of the citizenship award given by the Daughters of the American Revolution, was selected by faculty after the senior class nominated six girls for the honor. Mary Ann, for two years Drum Major of the band, is very active in extracurricular work, and is regarded by all as efficient and dependable and possessed of the characteristics which make for fine citizenship. She has applied herself conscientiously to her studies and is the valedictorian of her class.

SARAH JO WHEELER, winner of the Betty Crocker Award, scored highest on competitive examination taken by approximately twenty girls. Not only is Sarah skilled in the art of homemaking; she is very active in Soc'n' Buskin, having directed the Spanish play for P. A. S. F. convention; she is a key member of the A Cappella choir, and is salutatorian of her class. In addition to this Sarah is regarded by teachers and pupils as a very fine person.

Miss Mason, homemaking teacher, presented this award at an assembly program.

FOOTBALL QUEEN

PETITE AND DAINTY BETTY STUBBLEFIELD, chosen Football Queen for 1957-58, was the senior candidate. She is escorted by Neal Harris. (as usual). The crowning took place during the Round Rock-Georgetown game.

NEAL, AFTER PRESENTING THE FLOWERS to Betty, adjusts the crown.

JUNIOR CANDIDATE, JOAN ROSENBLAD, with escort Dickey Stanley.

BAND SWEETHEART

TOP RATING in every aspect of its activity was achieved by the Eagle Band for the 1957-58 season, including the selection of a sweetheart, sophomore beauty, Ann McKinney.

To THE STRAINS OF "LET ME CALL YOU SWEETHEART" Band President R. J. Mott accompanies Ann across the field just after he has presented her with the heart of blue and white carnations. Spectacular halftime ceremonies during the game with San Marcos introduced Ann as sweetheart.

COULD IT BE THAT THIS BAND PRESIDENT is giving this band sweetheart more careful attention than is required by his office? Ann's frock is off white organdy over taffeta embroidered with yellow centered flowers. Her sash is of gold ribbon. Perhaps R. J. feels that all this merits careful official consideration.

GIRLS' CHORUS

1st Division in both concert singing and sight-reading at Regional Contest in Waco.

BEAUTY AND EFFICIENCY - what more could one ask for in waitresses? These lovely girls dressed in South Sea sarongs are JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET freshman and sophomore members of Pan American Student Forum, and were happy to serve the junior-senior banquet.

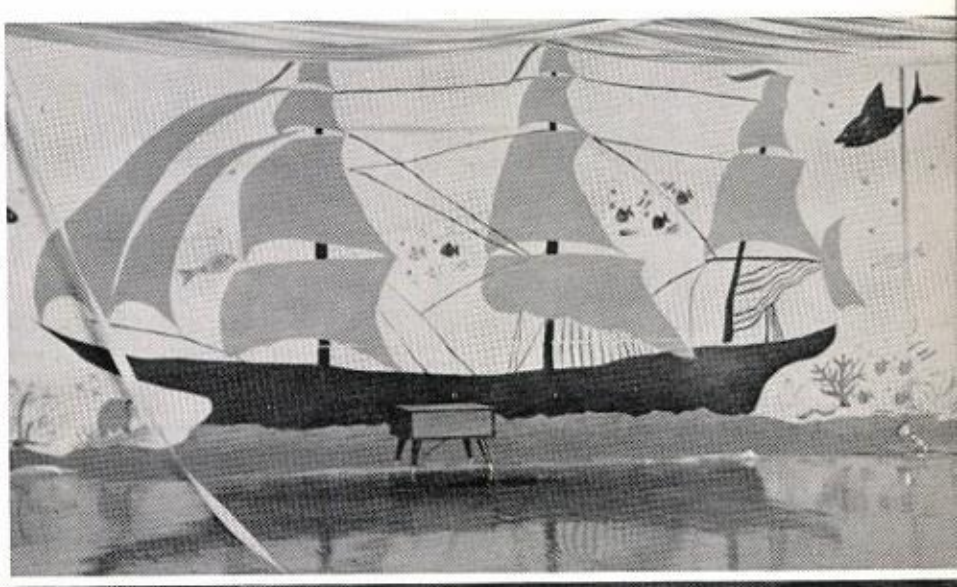
AN UNDERWATER THEME distinquished the splendid banquet given for the senior class on May 2nd. The juniors did a beautiful job throughout, from food to scenery. All the fish and water plants were drawn and painted by juniors.

GRACING THE HEAD TABLE are the class presidents, Don Williams and Tommy Leggett, emcee John Berglund and their dates.

SLOWLY THE BUBBLES RISE from the treasure chest below. Juniors Charles Miller and Kay Glenn and seniors Jimmy Whitfield and Virginia Whitfield are admiring the jewels.

THIS SCHOONER, which appears to float on the gym floor, was drawn by Jan Ischy to help create atmosphere. Isn't it see-worthy?



PARTIES

TO BOOST CLASS SPIRIT, to break the monotony, to celebrate, or for any other reason, a party is acceptable. These are only samplings of the parties for 1957-58, but are representative.

PRE-CHRISTMAS DANCE (top, above) is enjoyed by the 1957-58 crop of freshmen, who seem to be especially active as a class.

SHORTHAND PARTY features Helen Mercer, prominent (as usual) among the samplers of dips and chips. We know there are others - just look!

GRADUATION

PROPHECY given by Janice Glass, Helen Mercer, and R. J. Mott. The smiles indicate that the future looks rosy for the class of '58.

TOP TEN

Mary Ann Jones - 95.9
Sarah Wheeler - 95.49
Don Williams - 95.18
Rosalie Smith - 93.43
Lyndon Rosenblad - 93.37
Jerry Thompson - 93.3
Imadell Burks - 92.25
Helen Mercer - 92.06
Betty Stubblefield - 92
Rita McCasland - 91.94

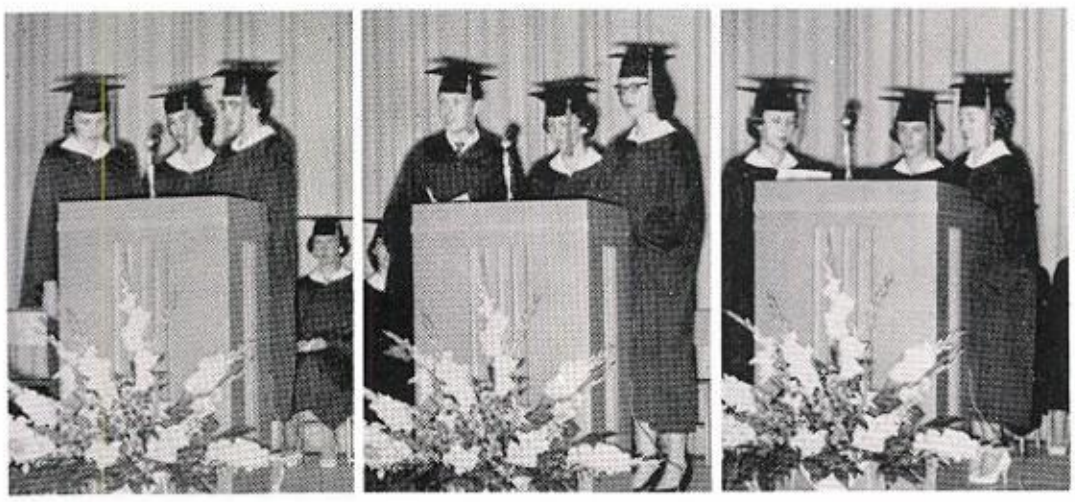
SENIORS, 1958, are proud of their fine students. After the top ten came many others with averages between 80 and 90.

BACCALAUREATE services were held May 25, at the First Methodist Church. Reverend McAfee of the Saint John's Methodist delivered the sermon. The high school chorus gave two numbers, and one of them, "God of Our Fathers," featured brass and percussion accompaniment from band members in the church balcony.

AT GRADUATION EXERCISES Dr. Arthur K. Tyson, president of Mary-Hardin Baylor College made the address to the sixty four seniors and friends.

CLASS HISTORY was presented by Kay Adams, Mary Ann Jones and Rosalie Smith.

CLASS POEM was read by Howard Bleeke, Ann Love, and Sarah Wheeler.



CLASS WILL was given by Judy Chrietzberg, Betty Logan, and Betty Stubblefield.

BETTY BIRD HILL, at the left, below, returned to graduate with her class. Next are the medal winners: K. Freydenfeldt, Spanish; H. Schwausch, Ag.; S. Eanes, junior high science; E. Gibbs and L. Weir tied for junior history; L. Tonn, junior math and citizenship award; Carlela Keys, senior citizenship award; J. Rosenblad, homemaking; (not shown) J. Smith, junior high Spanish. The flowers are in memory of classmate Brian Englebrecht; next M. A. Jones, valedictorian and commercial award; J. Glass, speech; S. Wheeler, salutatorian and English; N. Harris, award for twelve years of perfect attendance; K. Adams, recipient of award from paper staff for editorship; Don Williams, science and math; G. Peterson, tied with Williams for math; Sandra Elliott, history. The medals were awarded for top grades in the department. The American Legion also presented citizenship awards to J. Doerfler, and J. Kauffman, not shown.

CLASS

SENIORS

Vice-President Neal Harris, endowed with athletic ability and musically gifted, expends his energy and talent freely. His unusually mature perception of what is right influences his every act, and his magnetic personality has won him the affection of the whole school.

Treasurer Alex Patterson has met the challenge of life as presented to him, and has grown in ability, understanding and spirit as he has risen above difficulties to become one who renders real service to his school.

Reporter Betty Stubblefield: Miss School Spirit, herself! Betty's charm, gaiety and pep have been a real inspiration to the entire student body.

President Don Williams: If ever a student deserved the title "well rounded," it is Don. He is consistently able and outstanding in everything he does, often because of natural ability, but always because of an eager, adaptable nature, and a great desire to accomplish.

Secretary Rita McCasland is a good student whose sweet and cooperative manner, and whose interest in and respect for learning has had far reaching influence in guiding many of her classmates.

WHAT'S THE RESULT? One could ask Don Williams, John Berglund, David Cothran, Ray Charles Leschber, Carol Henderson, Betty Logan, or Kay Adams and maybe could receive an answer. Although some look bewildered, others seem confident of the product.

REPORT CARD DAY! Some smile; others groan. Everyone here seems to be rather pleased with his English mid-term grade, or with Mrs. Springer's consoling remarks.

JUNIORS

Treasurer Billye Adams: a cheerful, friendly, ladylike girl, whose enthusiasm shows in her active work in many organizations and school activities.

Secretary Jan Ischy: a fortunate girl who has a good mind as well as artistic and musical ability. She sets a fine example by her excellent taste in dress, her erect posture and her good grooming.

President Tommy Leggett has grown with the responsibility of being president. He has worked to establish the honor and prestige of the junior class.

Vice-President Dickey Stanley: Behind a mischievous, argumentative front is the real Dickey, who is a fine athlete, a good sport, and who is willing to work.

A LOOK at LIFE is the least that these interested juniors will receive while studying the unit on magazines which Mrs. Hindelang's classes do in the early spring. Those who really dig in will gain in ideas and knowledge.

All eyes on the book! These juniors realize the challenge of a five minute timed typing test, and everyone tries to beat his previous record, as the concentrated faces in Mrs. Edwin's class plainly show.

Victor Knauth, Cammy Blackmore, Johnny Lindell, and Jimmy Barrington are enjoying a forum discussion of careers, led by D. D. Fox in Miss Burleson's fifth period American History class.

SOPHOMORES

Vice-President Kay Covey: At first glance she is just a quiet, polite, neat girl, whose scholastic record is excellent. But look again, she is musical, a dedicated worker, a good citizen, and she sparkles with humor.

Secretary Paula Wheeler has a certain daring which adds zest to any gathering which she attends. She is known for her jovial and friendly spirit.

President John Doerfler: An outstanding student, good in everything, but a wizard in math. His easy going manner is deceptive, for he livens up any group with his humor.

Treasurer Carlela Keys: So likable that, as a new student last year, she was promptly elected secretary-treasurer, and then again this year. Her great interest is debating, to which she devotes more time than has any other Georgetown High student for many a year.

We try to suit you with our good service, and we support the activities of GEORGETOWN HIGH SCHOOL.

"Now boys," says Mr. Carter of the PIGGLY WIGGLY force, "we try to be considerate of our help, but this is Saturday and a sale-day besides." Johnny Nunn and Kenneth Adams really don't use their employer's time this way. They were just catching their breath before carrying out some more loads of tremendous bargains which people were purchasing at

PAUL'S TOMATOE PATCH

On the Corner of Austin
and 12th Streets
features wonderful vine ripened tomatoes and fruit of all kinds in season. Also, during the spring planting days they often have shipments of azalea bushes.

Here Sammy Stephens, who works at the Tomatoe Patch after school and on Saturdays, wonders how hard Kay Caskey is going to pinch that fine pineapple; as if this were not worry enough, Bonnie Caddell looks as if she is waiting her turn to pinch too.

Georgetown High School

My thanks and real appreciation:

To Williamson County Sun, whose very cooperative staff furnished us with many pictures.

To photographers Drew Sanders, Norman Bouffard, both of Southwestern University; and David Watts of Georgetown High School.

To Mary McCoy, who did the art work.

To Rosalie Smith, who kept accounts.

To Mr. Cairne, who takes his own pictures.

To Mrs. McClain for long hours and late nights of work.
